TO: THE GRADUATING CLASS

I am delighted to offer my congratulations upon the occasion of your commissioning in the California National Guard and United States Army Reserve.

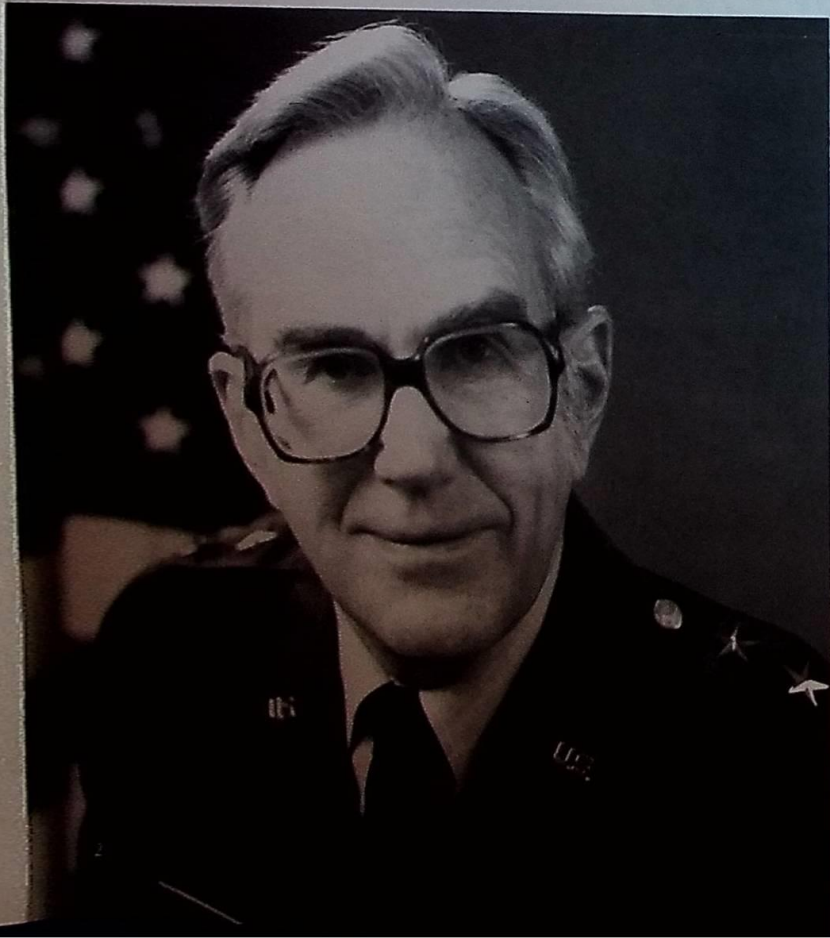

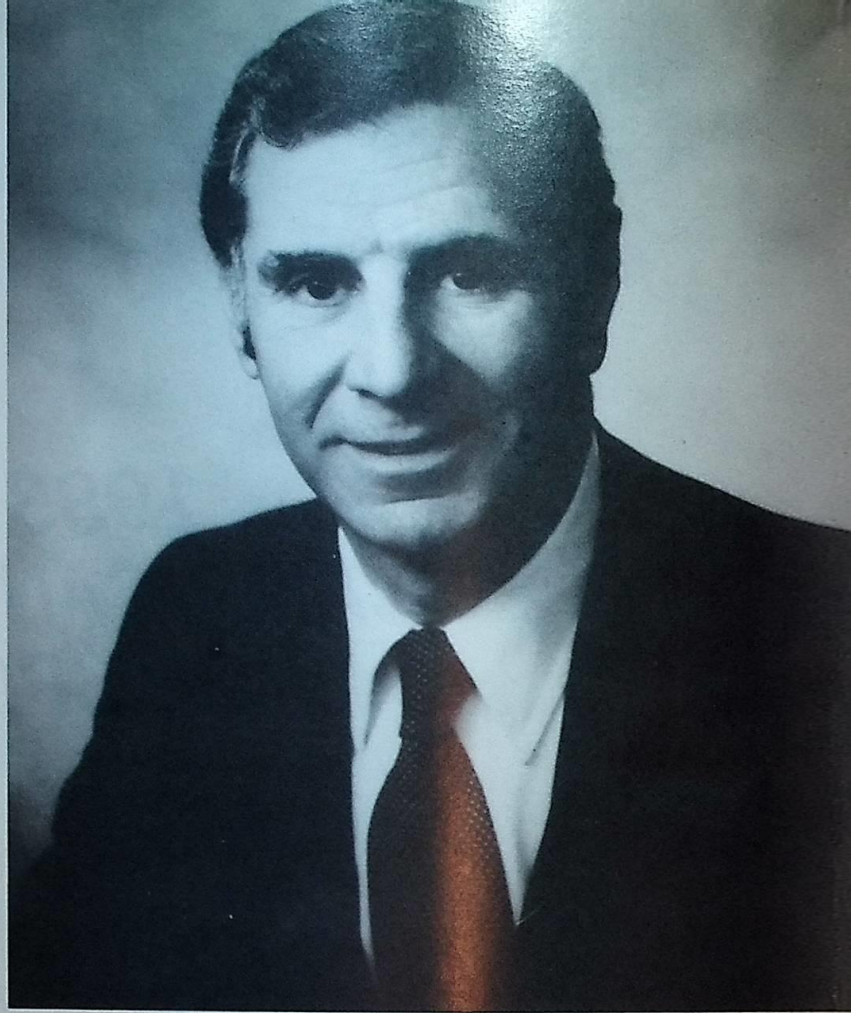

The citizens of California will depend upon you for the leadership of National Guard units in time of state emergencies, just as the Army will depend upon your leadership abilities in planning the nation's military posture.

I commend you upon completion of this rigorous course, and wish you every success in your service to the citizens of California and to the national responsibilities of the U.S. Army.

Most cordially

George Deukmejian
Governor, State of California

Congratulations!

That is - as it ought to be - the theme of this day as you are enjoying your status as commissioned officers, having taken your oaths of office before proud families and friends.

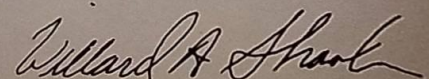

As you examine this book many years hence, I hope that you will recall with pride your careers in light of my own brief remarks at graduation:

Never Give Up! Never Give Up! Never Give Up!

from one of Winston Churchill's several memorable addresses.

His words are strong direction for military - and other - goals in your lives.

May you accomplish all that we know you can.

WILLARD A. SHANK
Major General
Commanding General
California National Guard

HISTORY OF CAMP SAN LUIS OBISPO

The California Legislature, in the statutes of 1850, provided for the formation of the California Militia. From 1850 until 1929, units of the California Militia, later the California National Guard, trained at areas locally available to them: state parks, ranches rented many times on a dollar a year basis, and to a limited extent, Federal military installations in the State.

In the years following World War I, the need for a state-owned training site became more generally recognized, and in the statutes of 1929 the California Legislature confirmed in the State Adjutant General the power of eminent domain. Very shortly thereafter, General Mittelstaedt, State Adjutant General, General Walter P. Story, Commanding General 40th Infantry Division, and State Senator Jespersen persuaded the Legislature to acquire and establish Camp Merriam as a training site for the California National Guard in the San Luis Obispo area. The name was changed to Camp San Luis Obispo when it was occupied by the Army in 1940.

In 1940, the Federal government exercised its pre-emptive rights and leased Camp San Luis Obispo from the State. To accommodate the 40th Infantry Division (National Guard) which then included elements from California, Arizona and Utah, as well as the many infantry divisions which were to follow, the camp was enlarged by 4,685 acres.

Camp San Luis Obispo was returned to the State of California in 1946. The cantonment area not previously owned by the state including all improvements on both sides of the highway was ceded to the State in lieu of restoration.

Concurrent with the return of the camp to the State in 1946, was the reorganization of the California National Guard. Camp San Luis Obispo became the home of the United States Property and Fiscal Office for California, which provides logistical and fiscal support for the entire California National Guard.

Following the outbreak of hostilities in Korea in 1950, mobilization of the 40th Infantry Division and several support units of the California National Guard, the Army again leased Camp San Luis Obispo as a Class I installation. The Southwest Signal Corps Training Center was located at the camp as a Class II activity.

In recognition of these needs, the Commanding General, State Military Forces, directed that facilities be developed at Camp San Luis Obispo to provide a suitable academic complex for the California Military Academy as well as for 6th U.S. Army sponsored and unit training schools. Other facilities were to be upgraded to acceptable standards. Actions designed to achieve these objectives have been in progress since 1967 and are continuing as provided by funding and demand.

HISTORY OF CMA

It was the summer of 1950 and junior officers in the California National Guard were fast becoming a rare commodity.

Responding to the situation at hand, Maj. Gen. C.D. O'Sullivan, then commanding general of the 49th Division, conceived a program that would remedy the deficiency. He sought and received authorization from the Department of the Army to establish an "Officer Candidate School" outside of the existing system.

The school, offering commission opportunity to enlisted persons already in the California National Guard, immediately came under close scrutiny from all quarters. The program proved successful and began to expand its format to provide the best possible instructions.

Although the school continued to grow in size and importance, it had no suitable facilities for academic training. In 1961, Camp San Luis Obispo was able to accommodate the school. Two years later, the name was changed to the California Military Academy (CMA). During 1981, the school's 31st year, Camp Roberts was utilized for training of CMA Cadets as a temporary move.

The course of instructions at CMA parallels that of the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Georgia, providing solid training in the basic skills and capabilities required of a junior officer. The program comes under continuing observation and evaluation, and is comparable to the specialized officer candidate school within the active Army.

Academically accredited by the California State College System and the Department of the Army, the California Military Academy has for 33 years lived its motto:

LEARN TODAY - LEAD TOMORROW

Camp San Luis Obispo's open air swimming pool that was later enclosed. Now non-existent the pool was located in the S-500 area across from the present day building 509 warehouse.

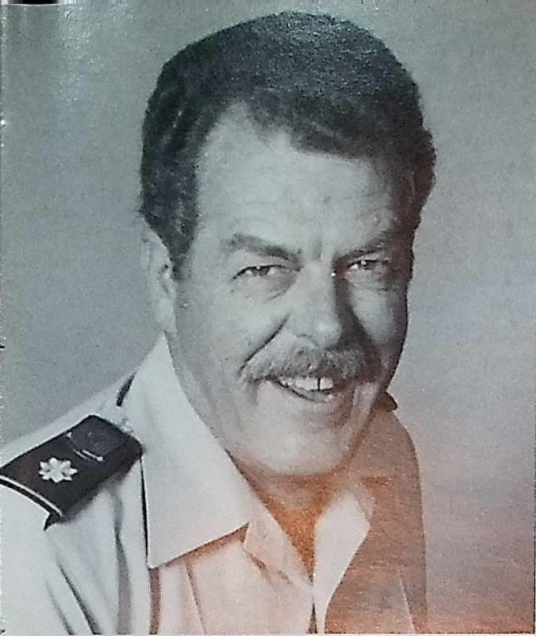

Message from the Commandant

As Commandant of the California Military Academy for the past five years, I am extremely appreciative of the many professional men and women who have contributed to our outstanding success in both officer and non-commissioned officer education. The OCS class of 1983 has been the finest in my tenure of command with their ninety plus cadets. Similarly, the fifth Advanced Non-Commissioned Officer Course, "Tuttle's Turtles", has exceeded all expectations for mission accomplishment, high morale and "Blue Turtle" enthusiasm. The overall effects of the cooperative spirit among the elements of CMA - strong, dedicated instructional committees; consistent, valid evaluations; talented, enthusiastic tactical cadre; reliable, resourceful logistical support; creative, accurate administration; timely, provocative operational decisions; and consistent, cooperative post resources have resulted in the maximum SYNERGISTIC effect.

With all of my thoughts for the day, the one most associated with the California Military Academy will be "NO LET UP ON FOLLOW UP". Let me consistently remind each one associated with the California Military Academy that our proud heritage of thirty-three years will always be a highlight for those who made it and supported us. Remember, "This is the first day of the rest of your life." Always give it your maximum effort.

I'm here as an extra for "Apocalypse Now".

I know I'm late.

You got us lost, you get us out!

Time to load up.

Follow me boys!

"Ain't no discharge on the ground."

Walk this way.

Chow Time.
Hope this Major tips me.

You were supposed to take a left at the last intersection.

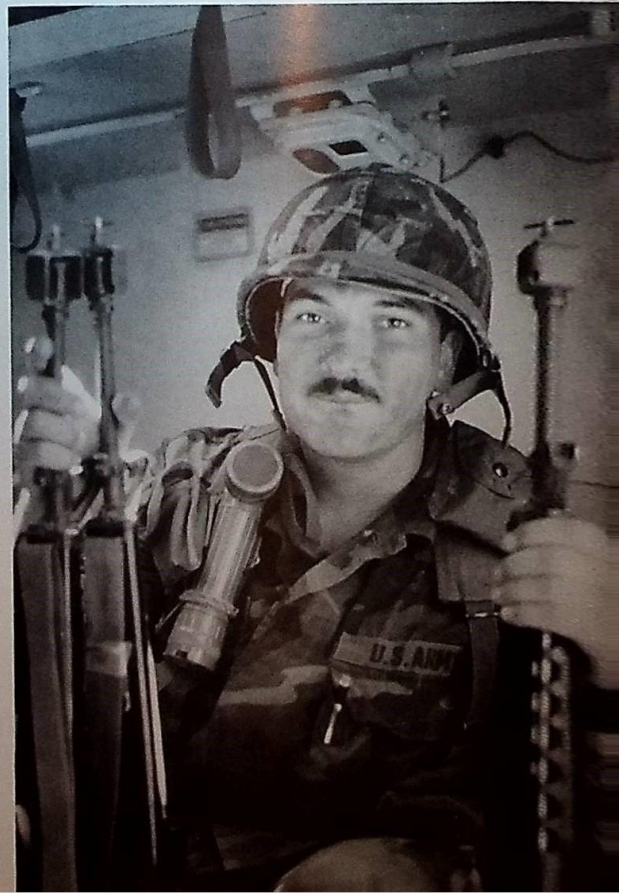

I'll have a Jumbo Jack, fries and a coke.

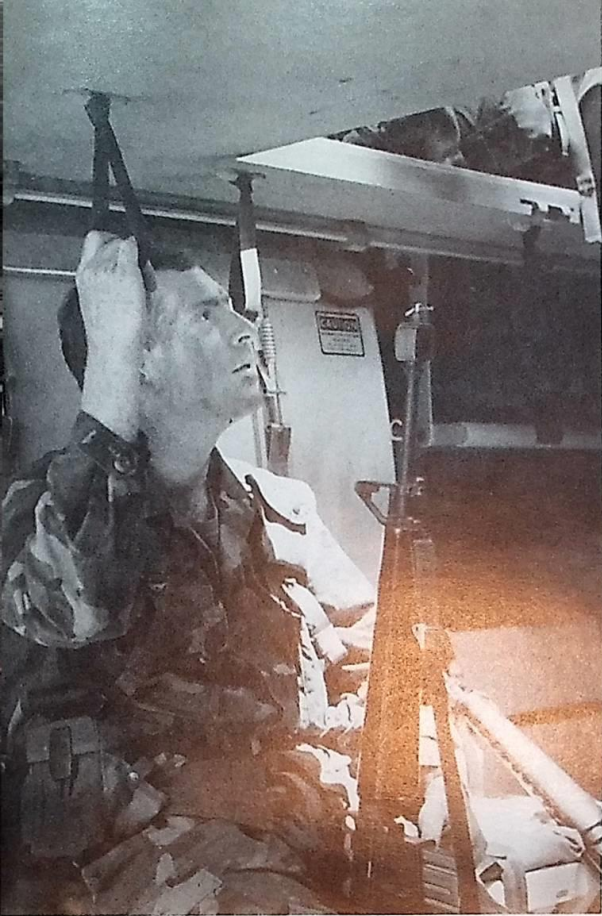

Take 5.

CAL TRANS.

What a way to spend a Saturday.

Are we there yet?

Effective use of terrain for camouflage.

This countryside is great!

Halt, who goes there?
and they say it all fits.

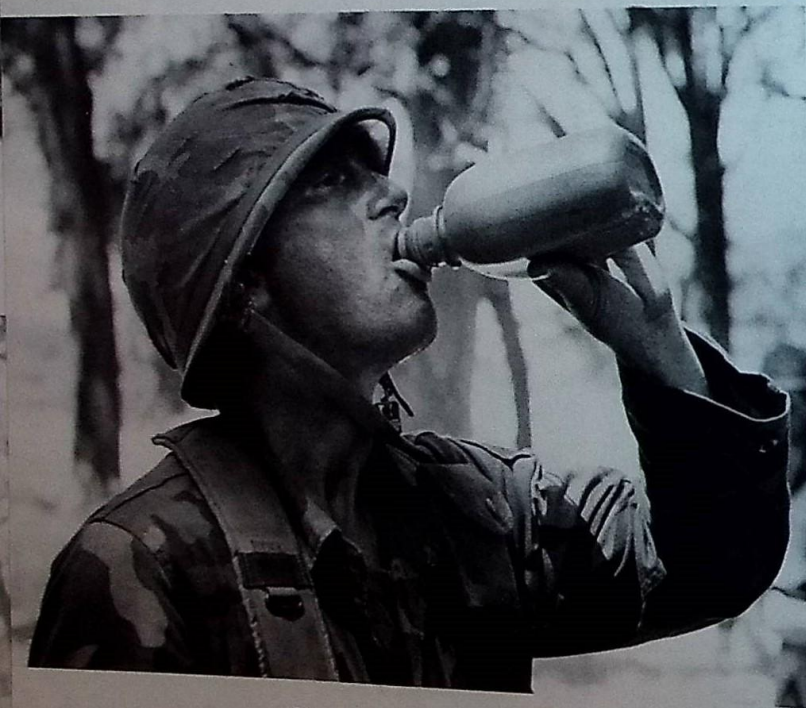

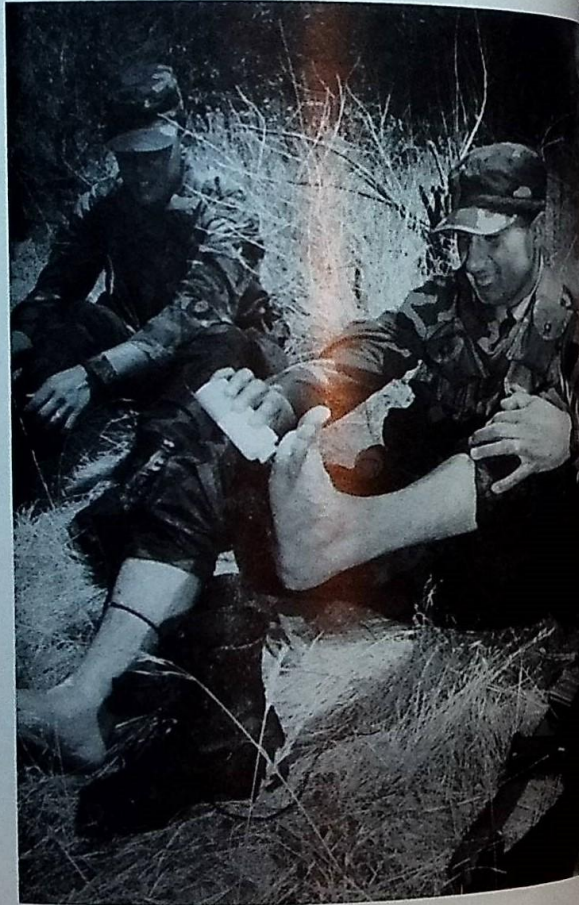

Ham and eggs again!

As soon as he gets back one of you can go.

Oh no, salt water again.

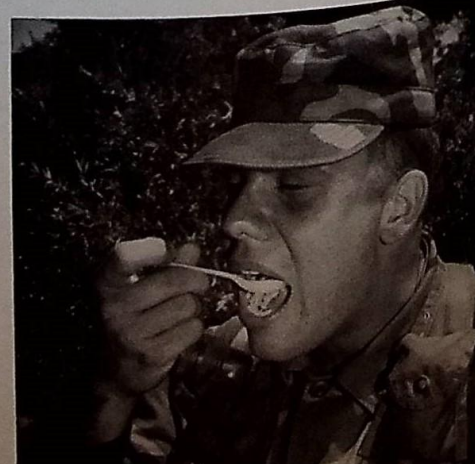

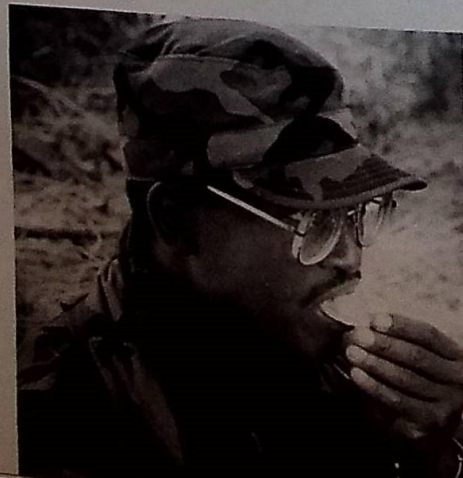

You ain't gettin my C's.

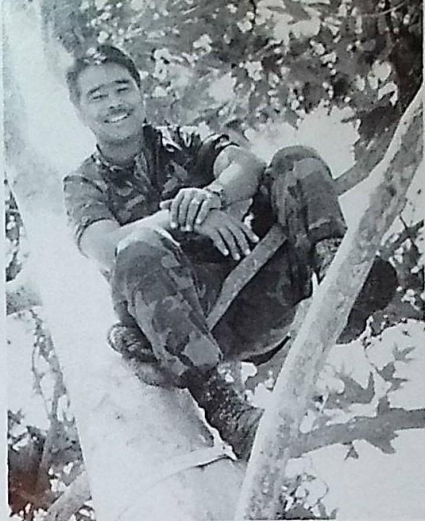

Good cracker.

My wife says they smell.

Tuna loaf, I'm in love.

Time To Relax

The cadre won't see me up here.

But, Sir, this is my MOS.

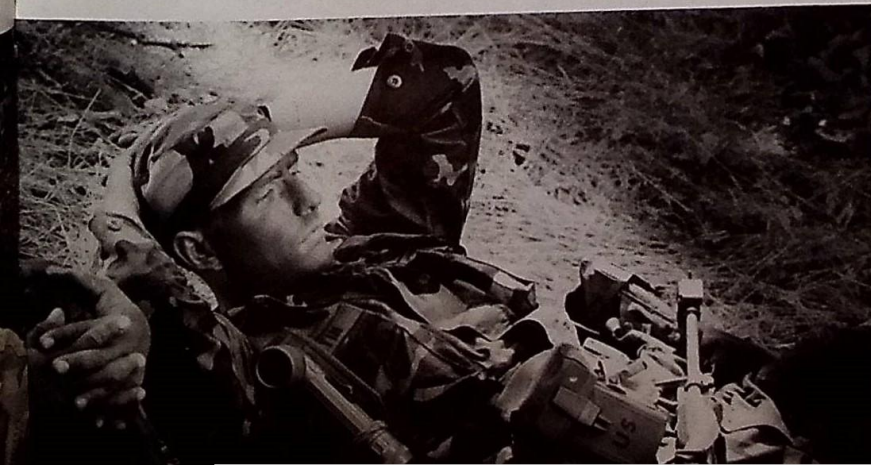

C's can do you in every time.

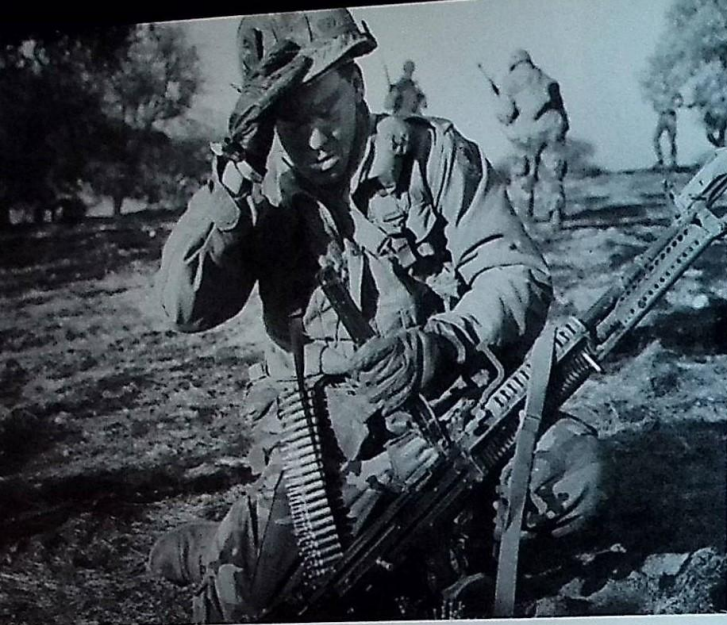

No, I won't smile for the camera.

It's loaded with an M-79 round.

I surrender, I think.

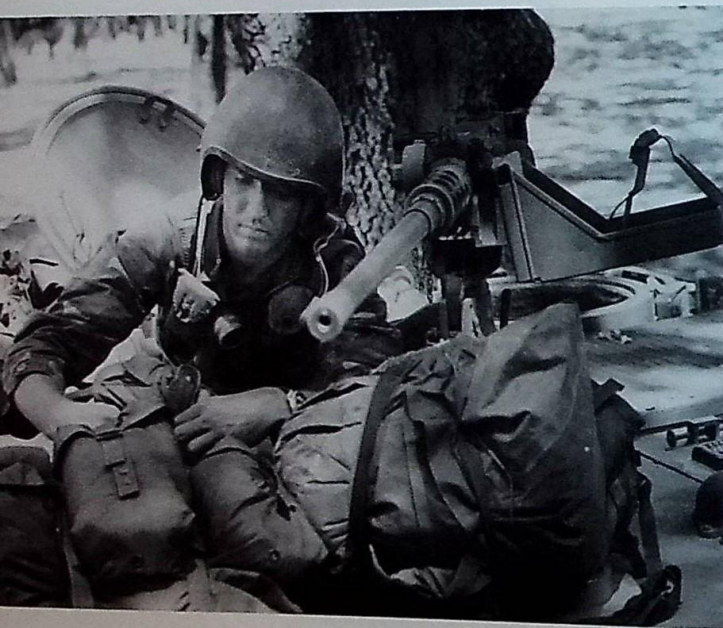

If it doesn't go in, beat it with a steel pot.

I am sick of his fish tales.

It's in here someplace.

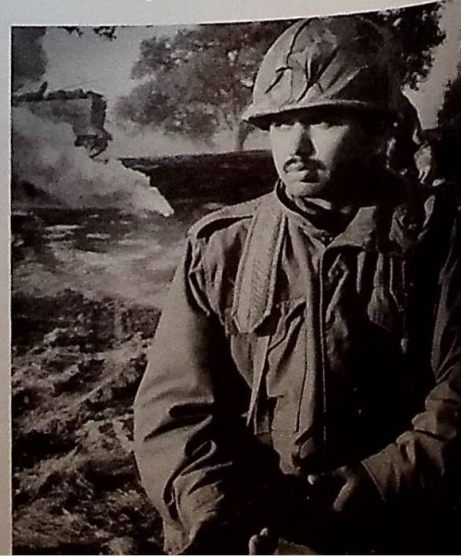

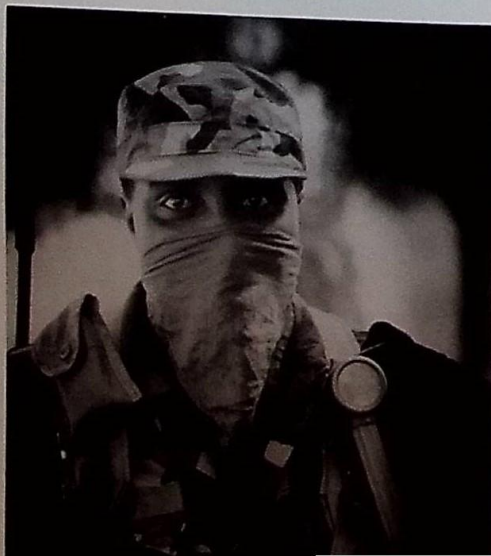

Sir, at this time I request a transfer.

Flash Gordon?

Out with your hands up!

I dare you to cross my perimeter.

1ST DAY- JUNIORS

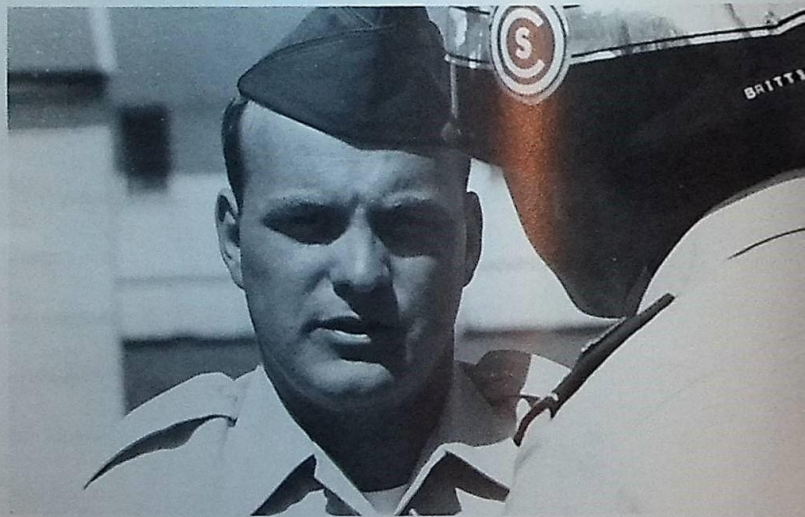

"Do I have to get down there and do it for you Cadet?"

Cadet Staudenraus states it loud and clear.

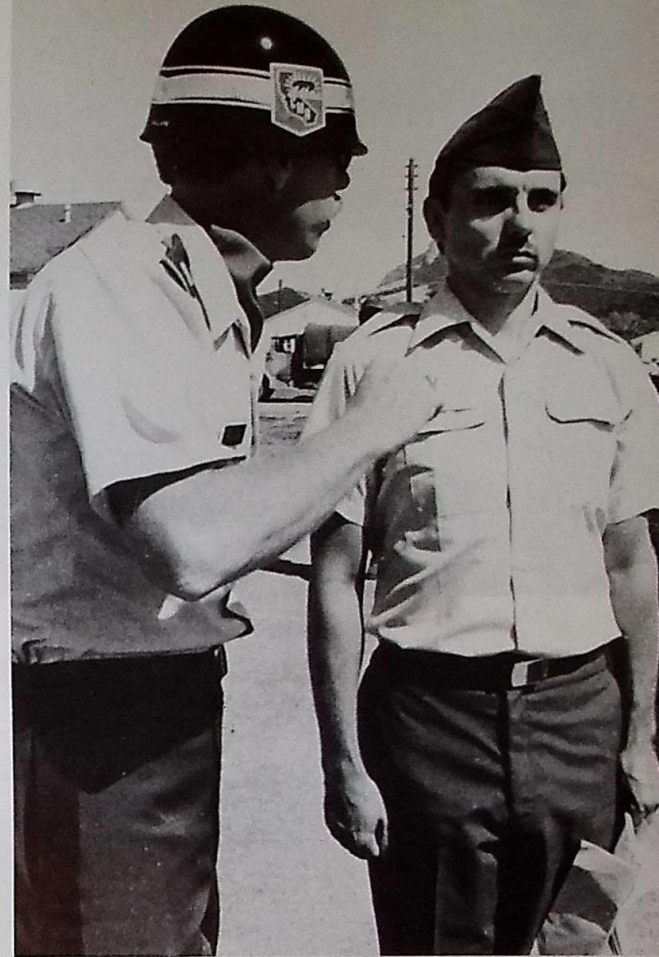

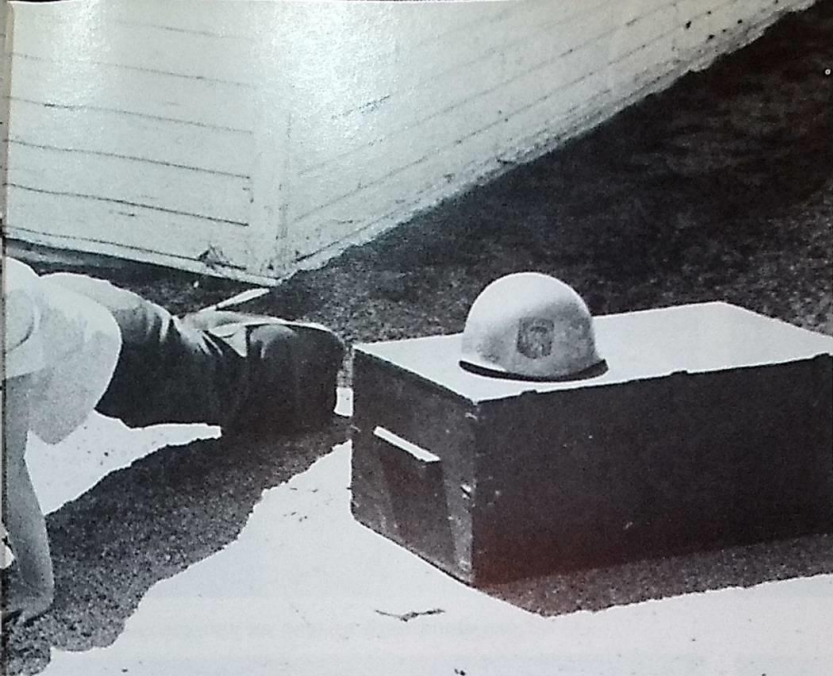

Cadet Champaine is looking for the lost belt buckle.

"I'm thinking I may have made a mistake."

"Don't smile Rideout, your next."

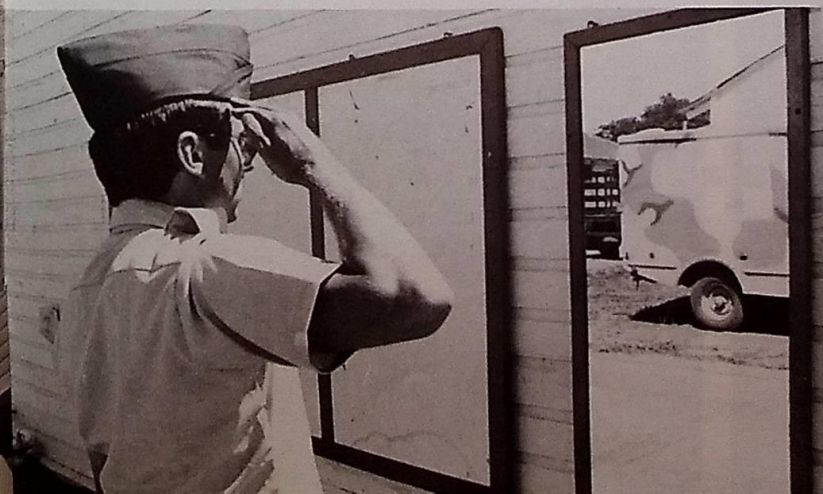

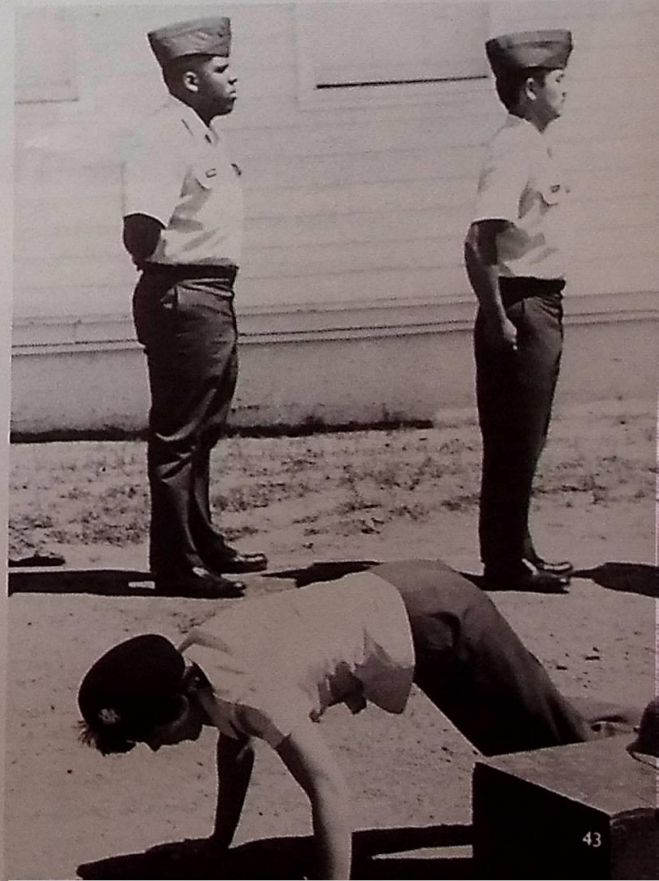

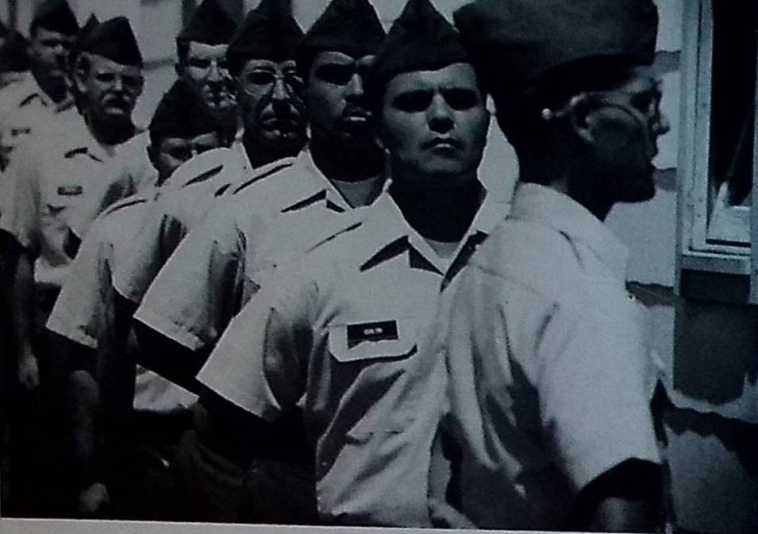

"It'll take more than a road map to get through CMA Cadet."

"Get that rear end down Cadet."

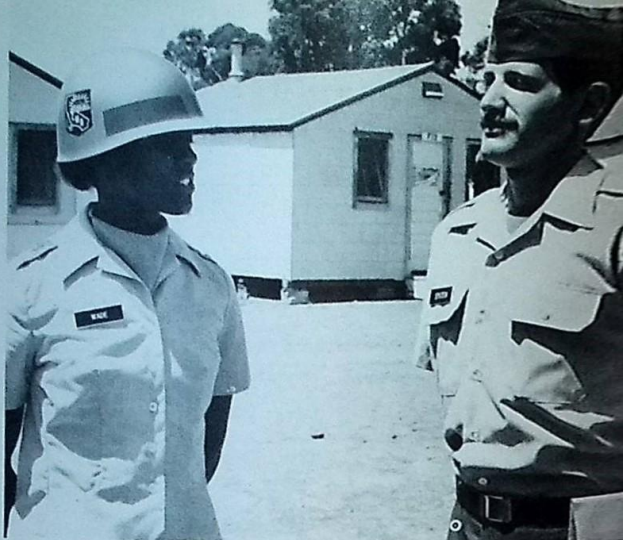

There's only one way Cadet, my way!
"I salute you oh carrier of the wounded."

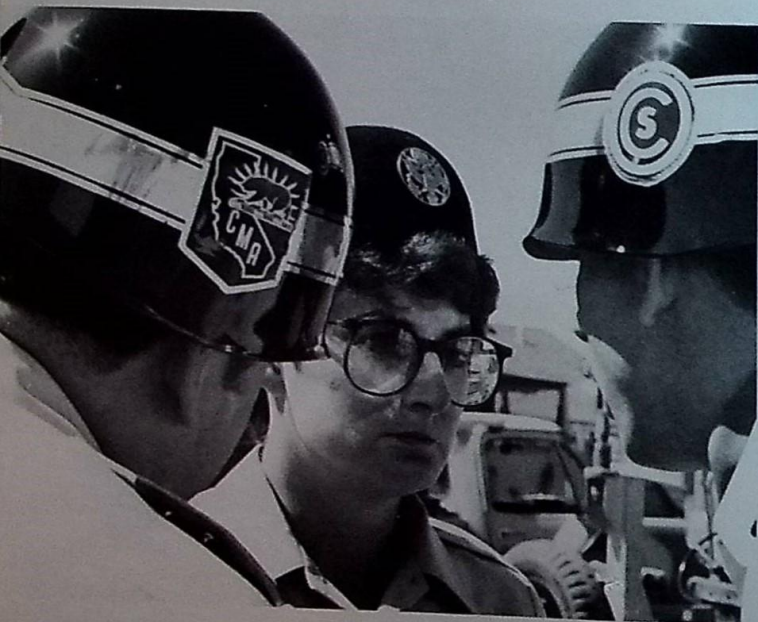

I know I can face this.

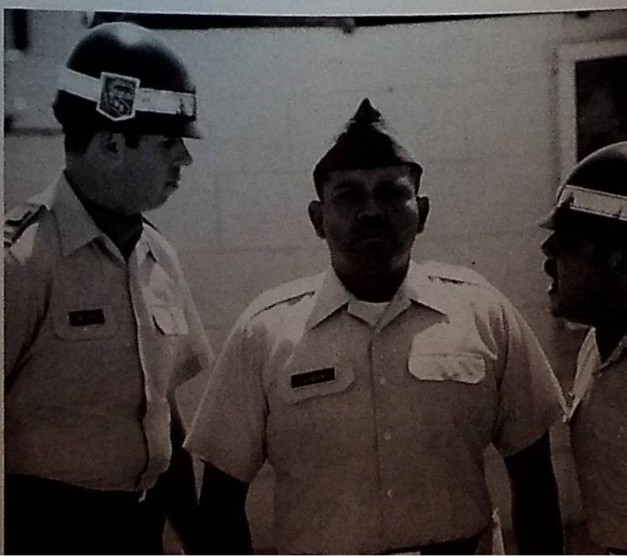

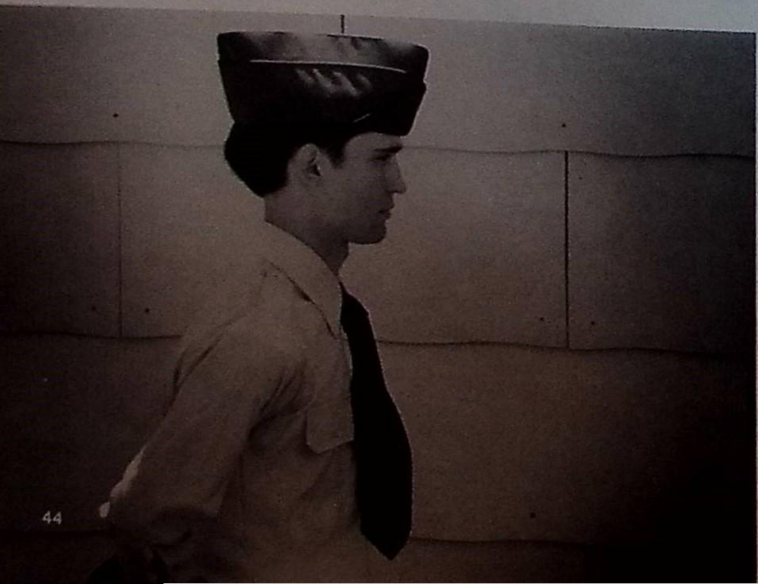

I can stand here as long as you can.

You What?
Leadership is a lonely position.

You have one-zero minutes to square yourself away.
Now is not a good time to ask for a three-day pass.

Thank you sir for telling me the meaning of life.

Formations are essential.

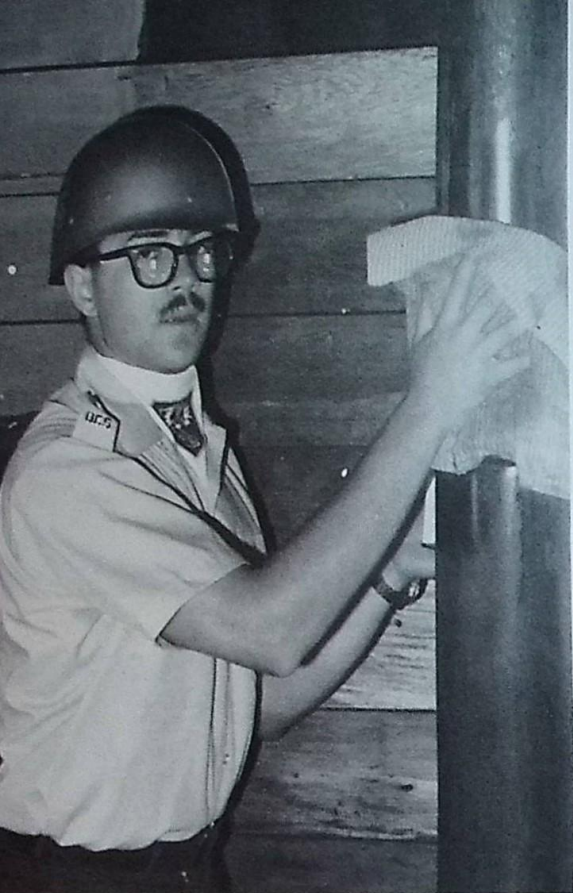

Stand up Cadet.
I talk, you listen.

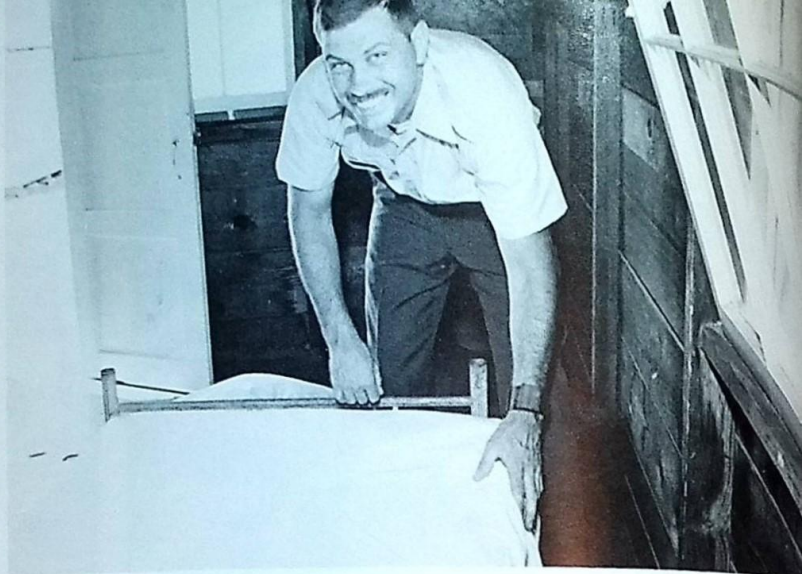

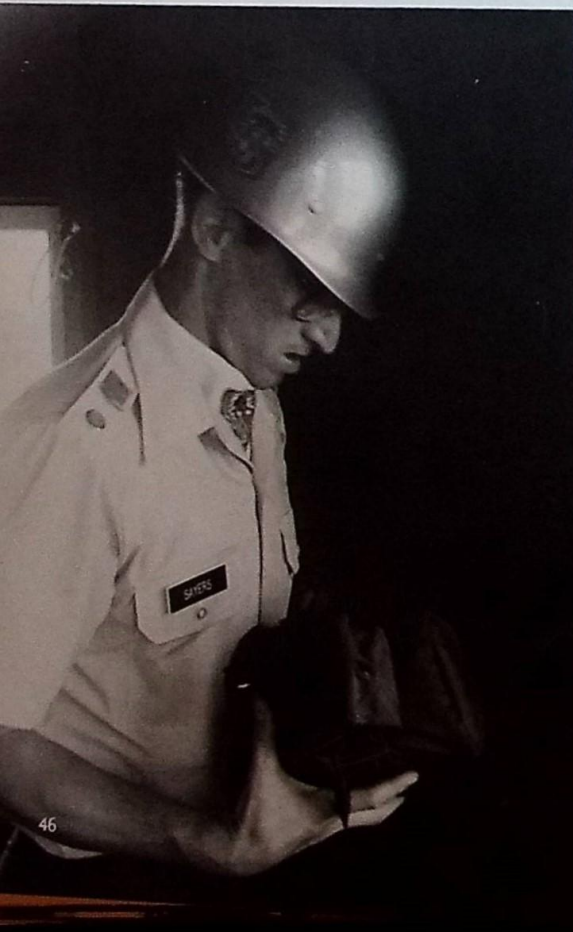

Don't even think of smiling.
You may start anytime.

I use 409.

Let's see, do I have everything?

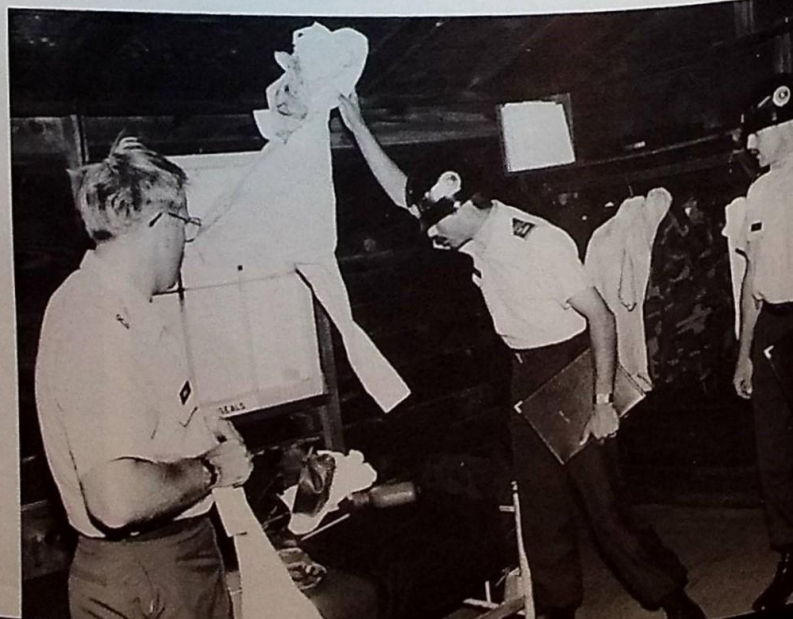

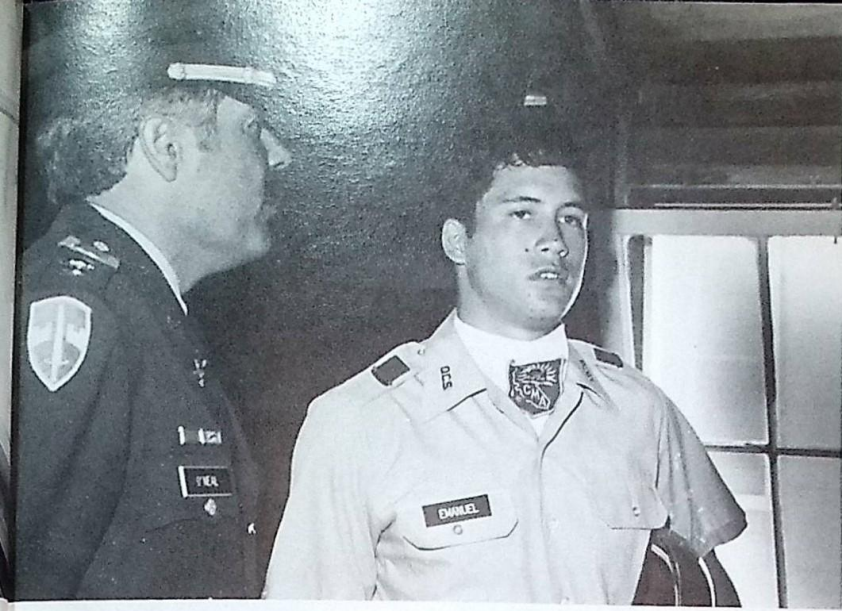

Making a bunk army style.

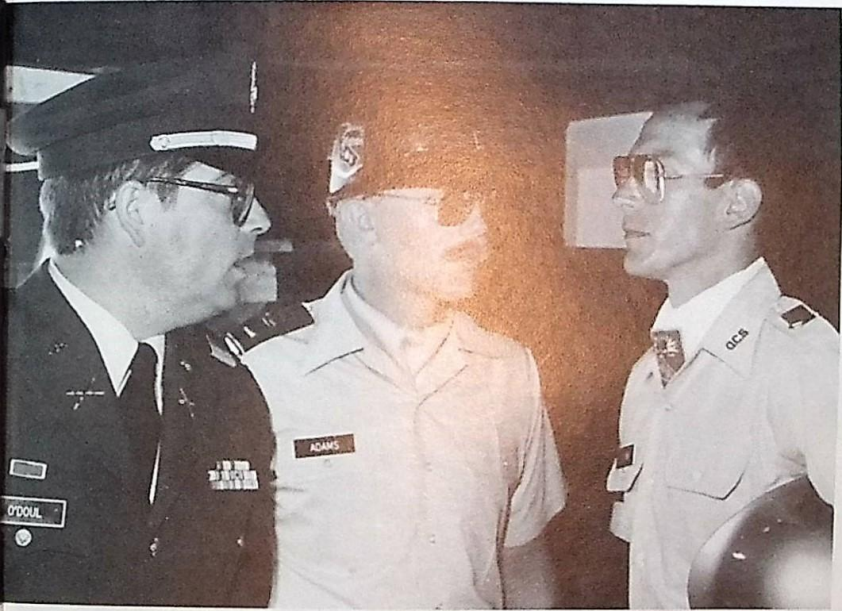

You only need one name tag cadet.

I've never seen so much filth!

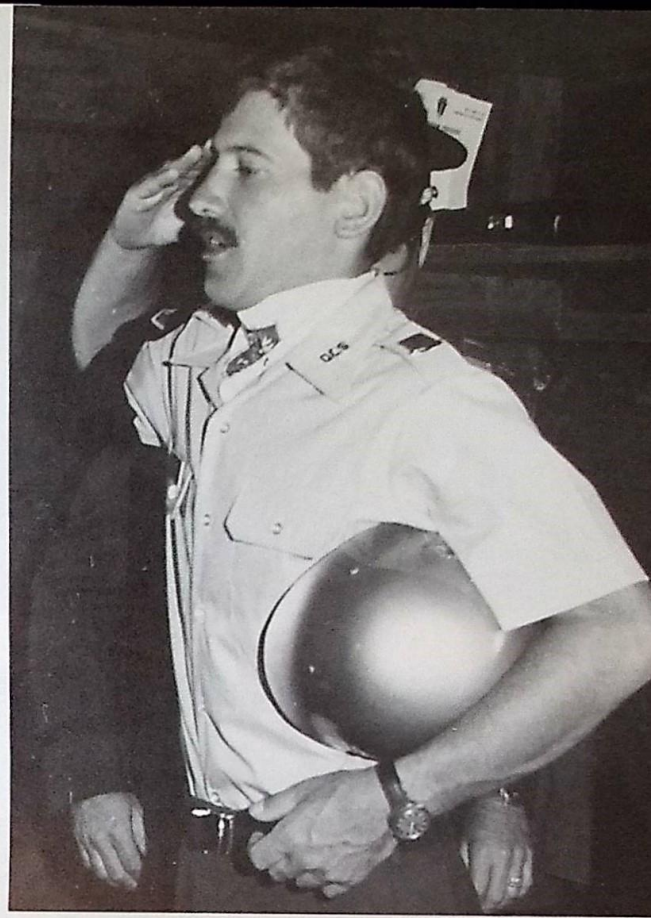

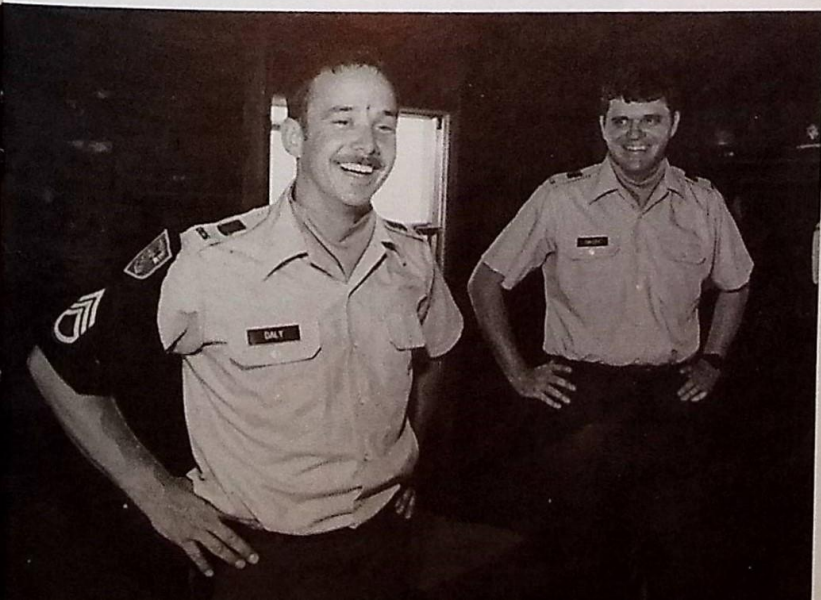

Sir I do believe you're right.

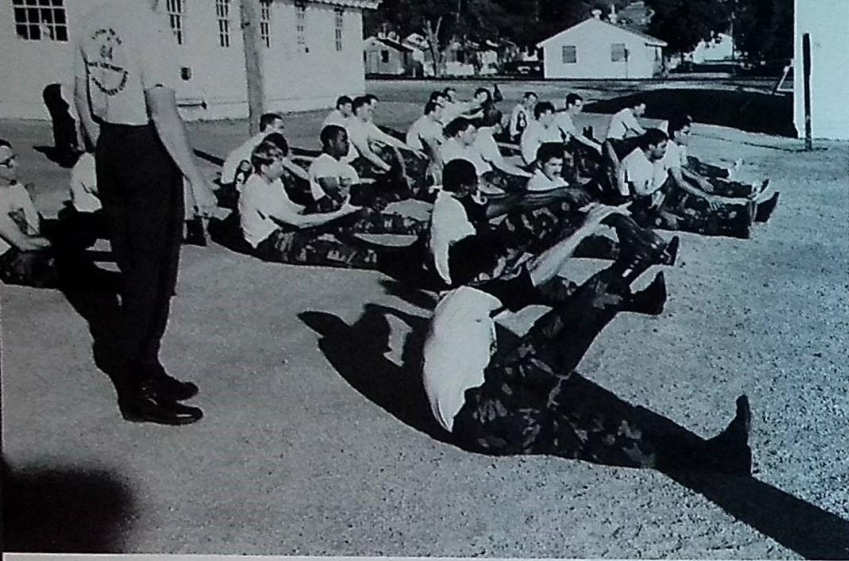

No fooling, MASH is cancelled.
We have so much fun here.

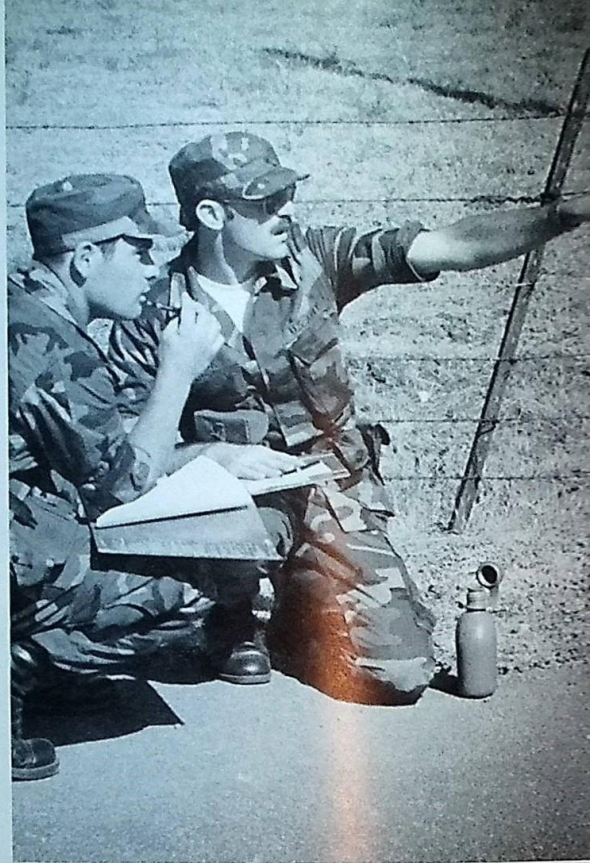

This is a sharp salute.

I don't think I made my bunk correctly.

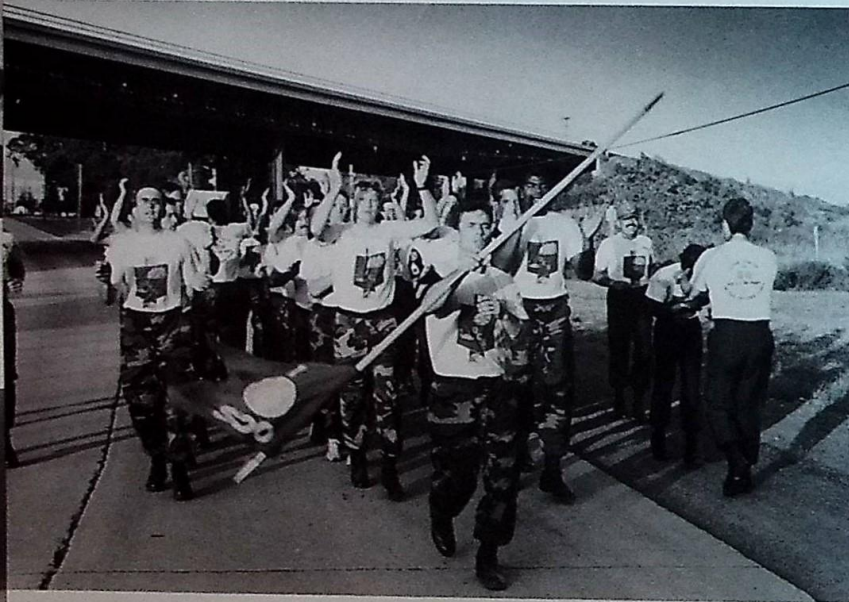

"New Wave" PT.

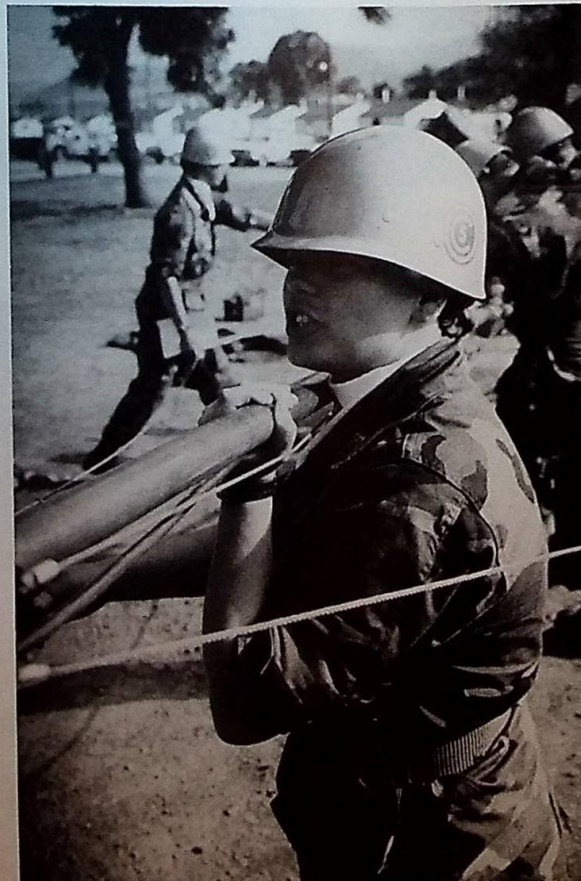

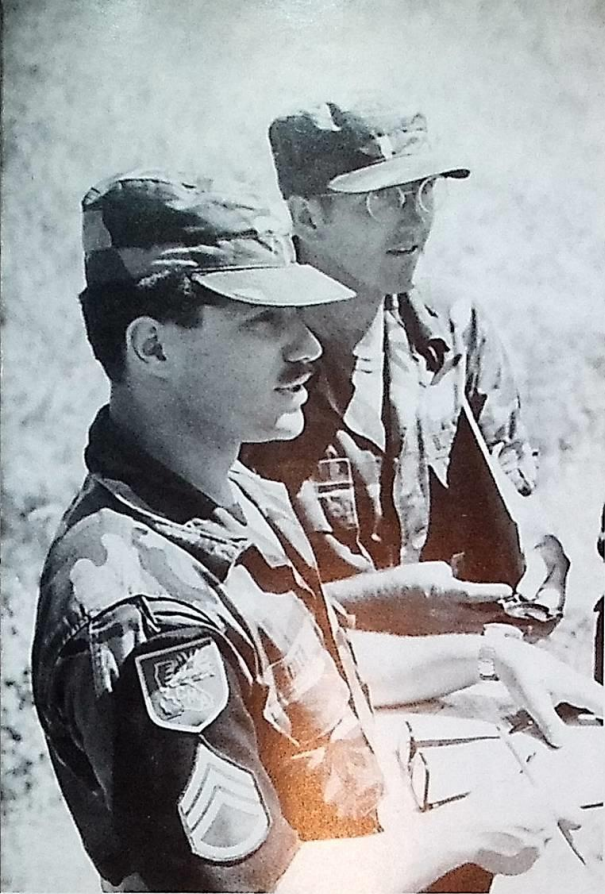

If my map says there's a bridge here, then there's a bridge here.

No what do I do?

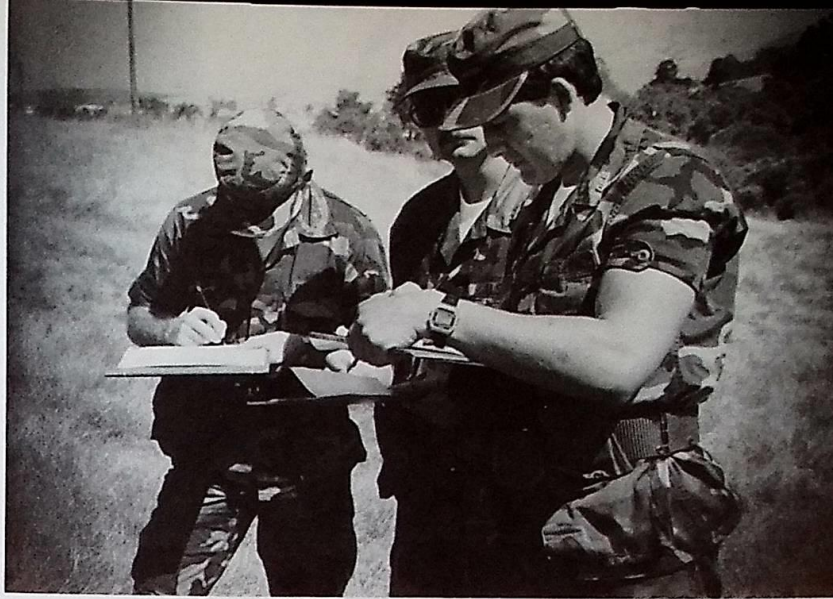

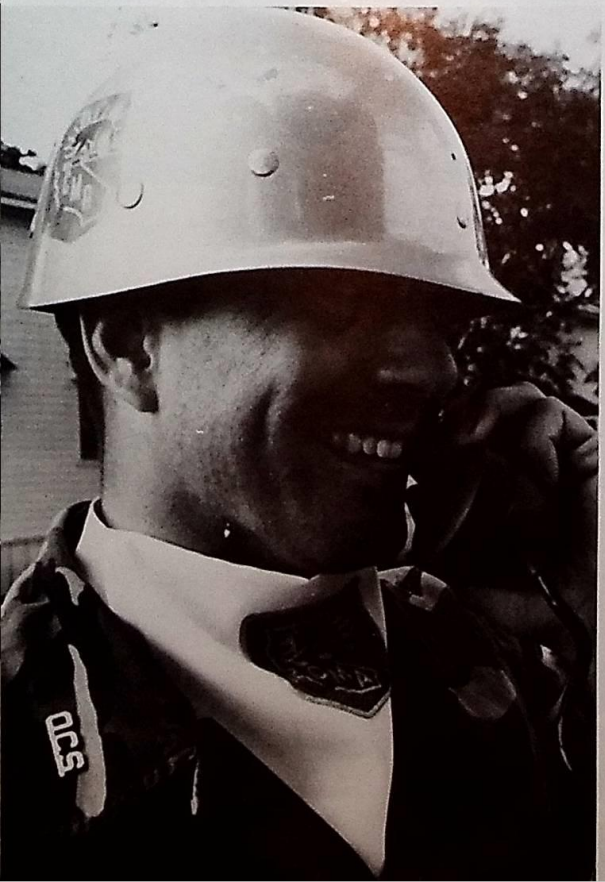

Here we GO!
My finger is stuck.

1st platoon should be coming around the bend.

You want it when?

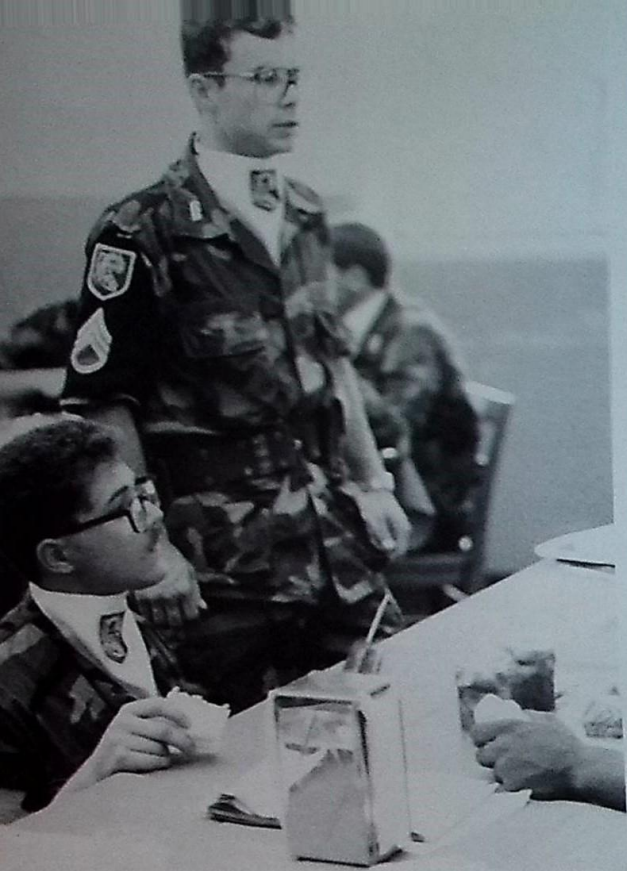

Next time I want a desk.

Dear Mom, Having lots of fun.

We'll have pepperoni, sausage, and mushroom.

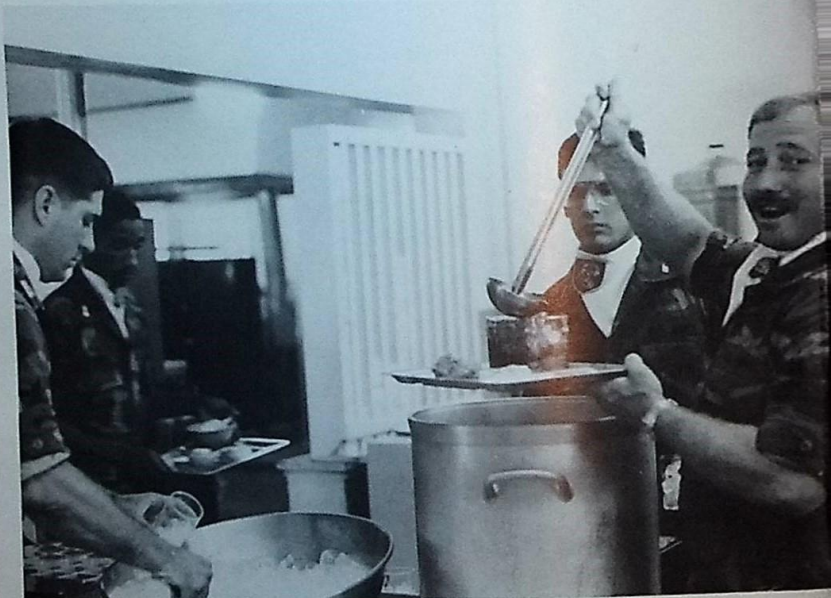

Believe me Army chow is the best.

Anybody like Country & Western?

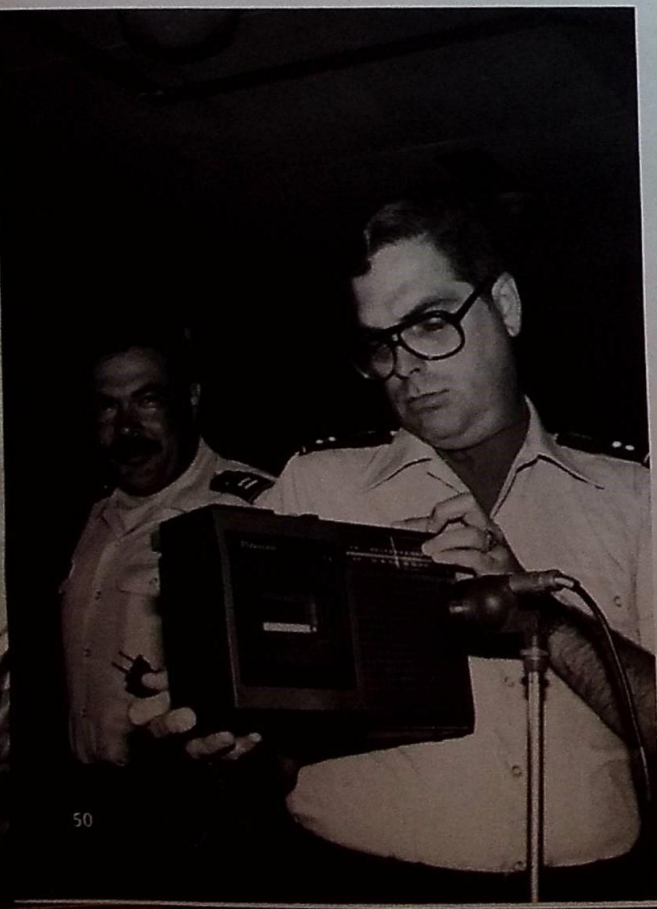

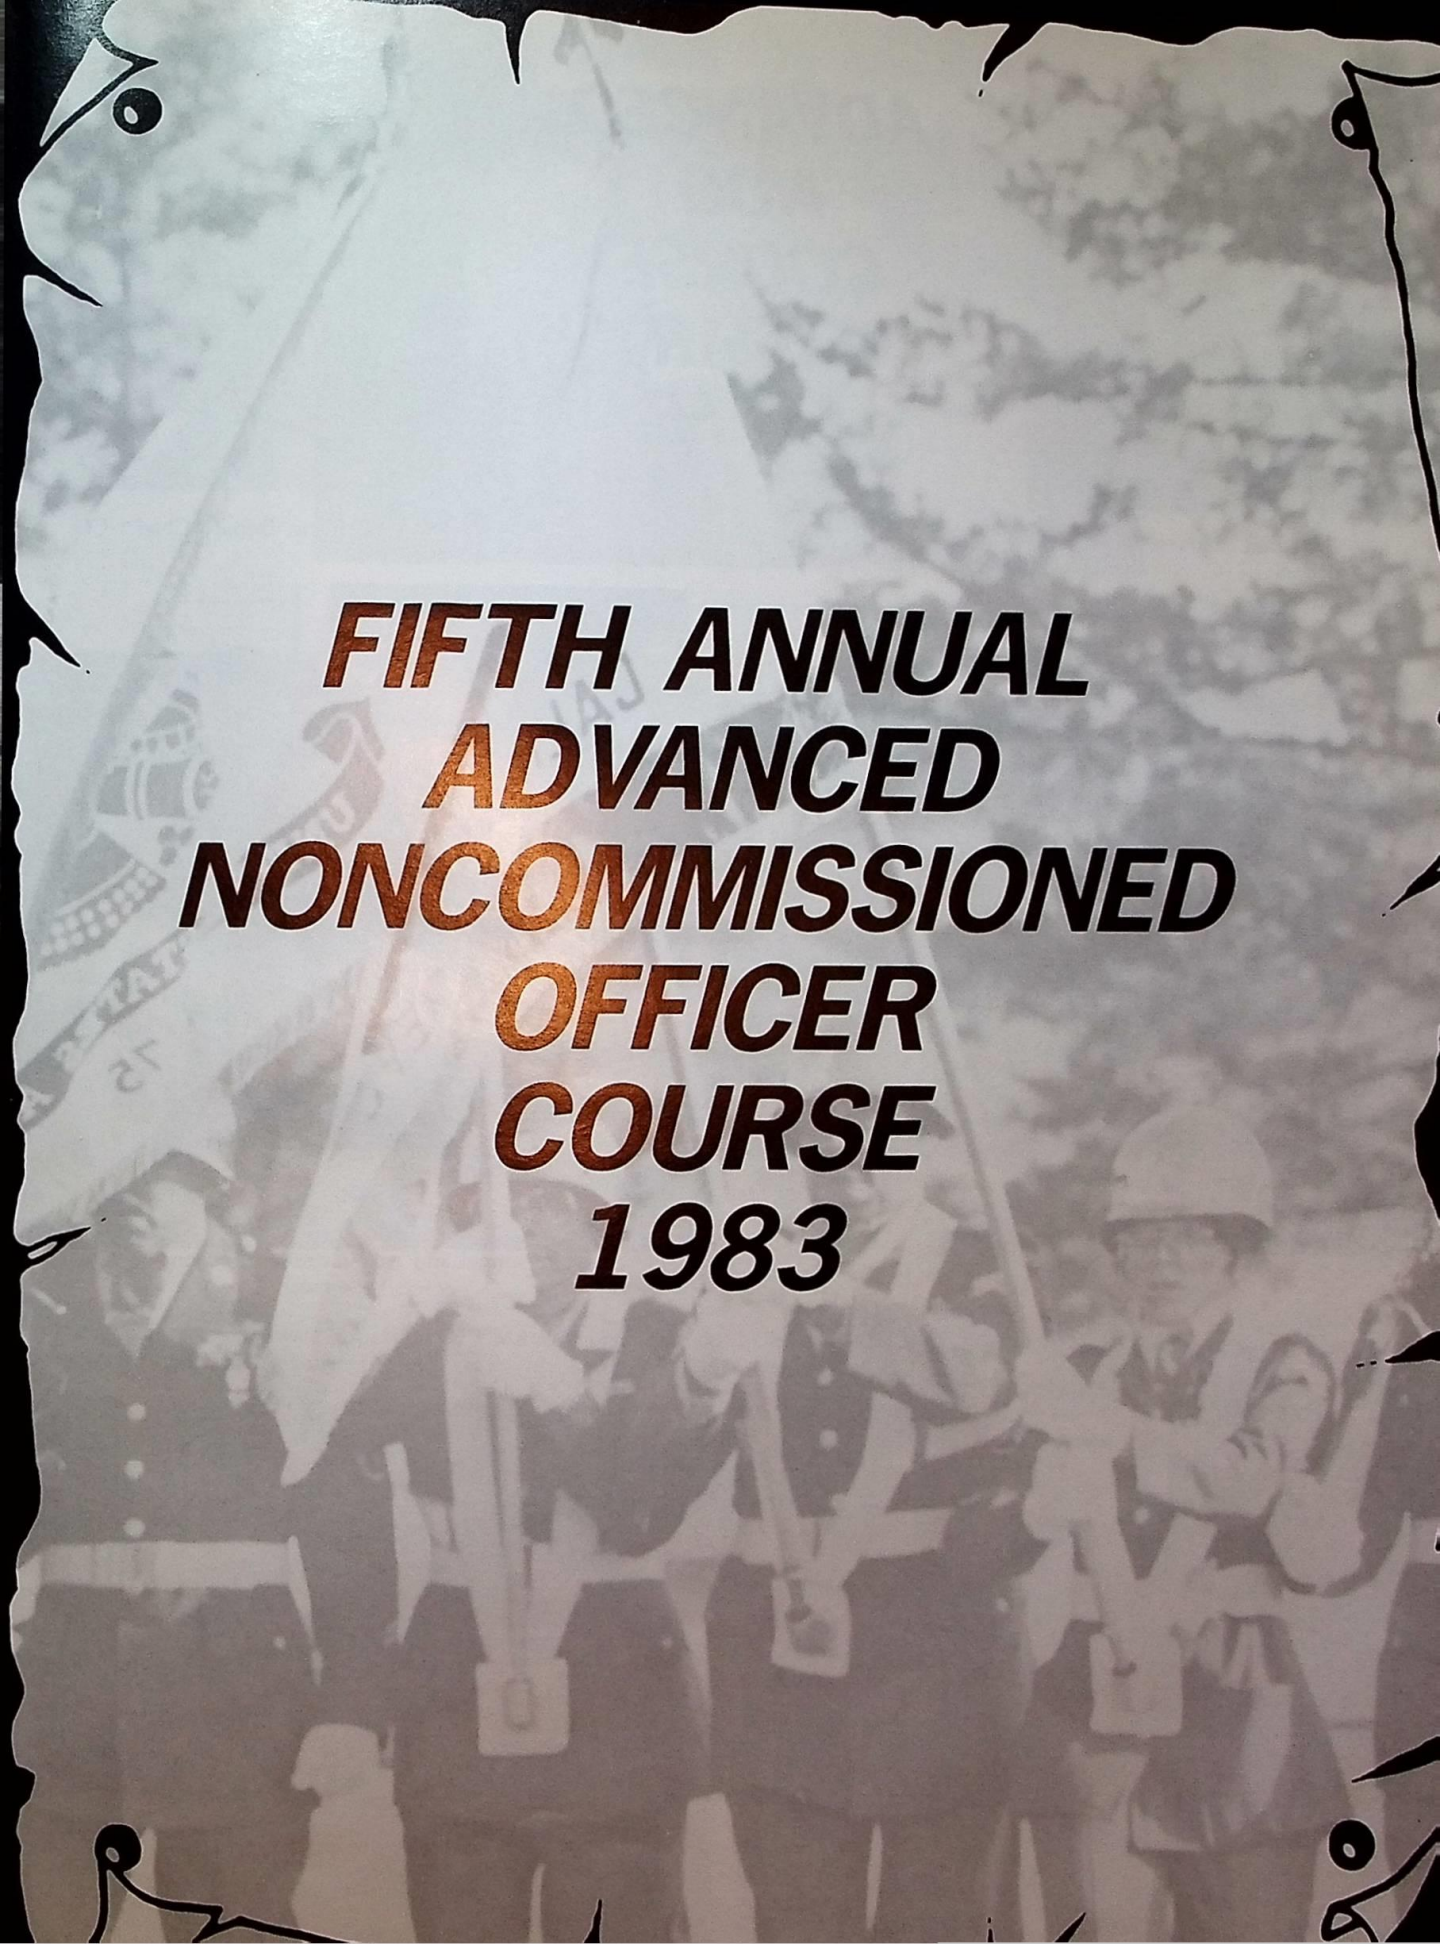

It's empty.

My Recruiter said there was beer in the chow halls.

I can be here all day.

1983

CMA Operations Section

Maj. David S. Donahue, Operations Officer.

CMA Operations-Graphics Section.

CMA Administrative Staff.

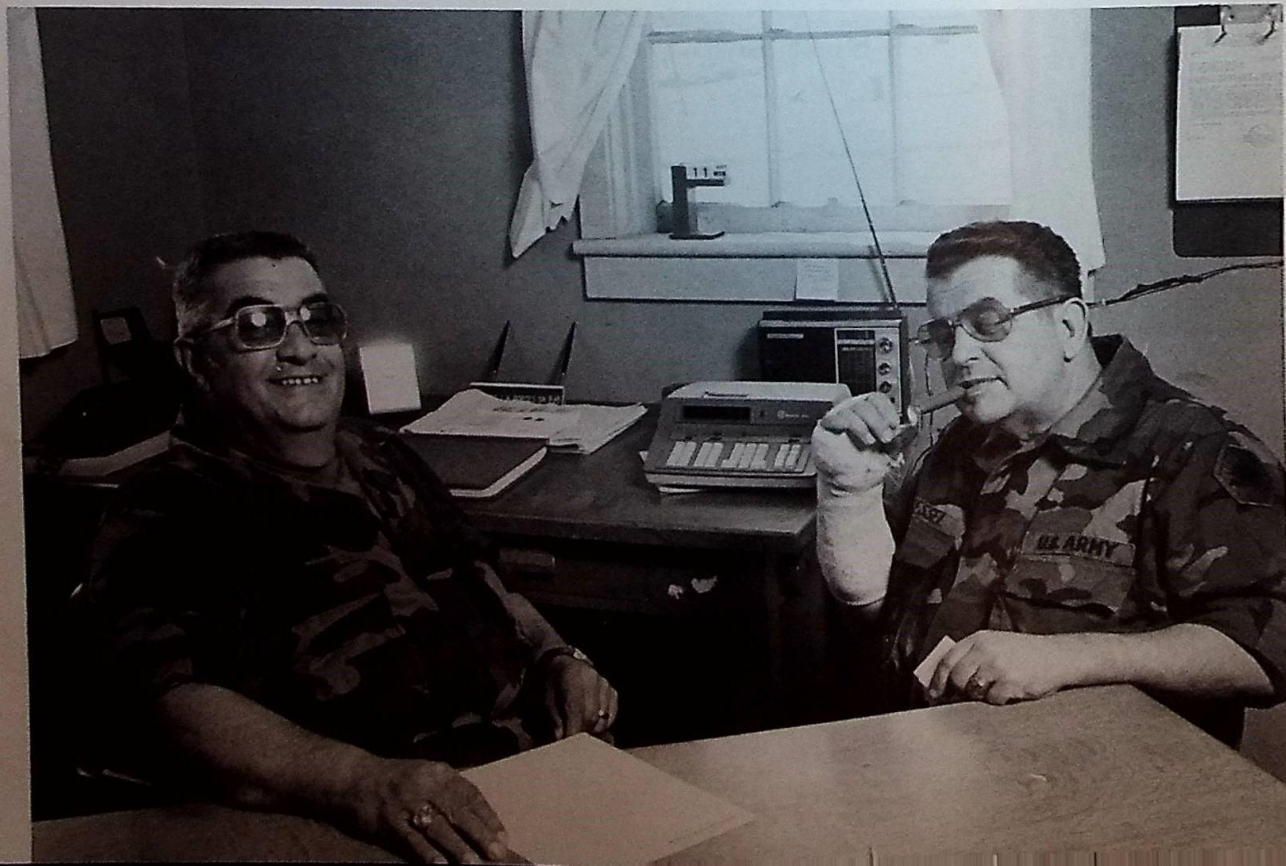

The female photographers give the picture proofs a going over.

WOPA Section

CHIEF, may I light my cigar sir.

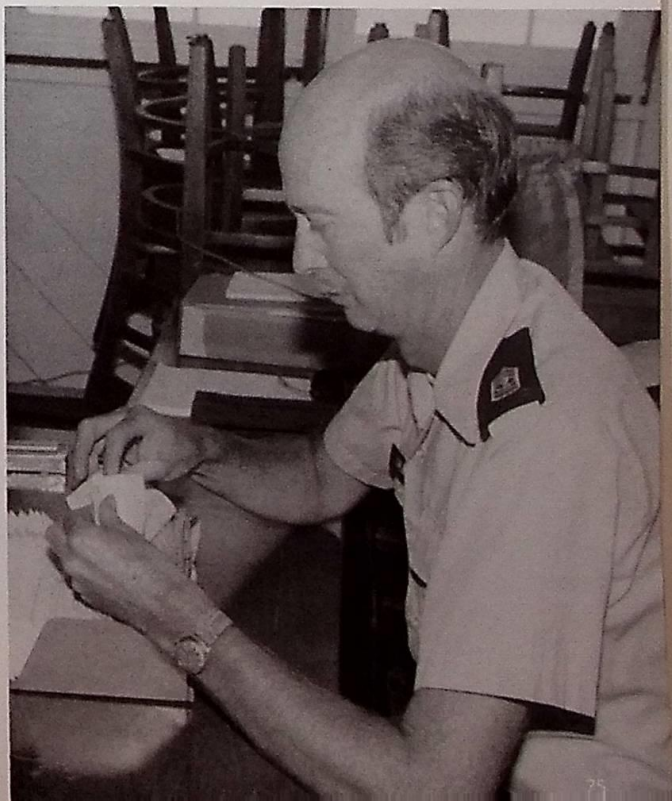

CMA Finance Section

Yours ain't here ma'me.

Here's the person buying me dinner tonight.

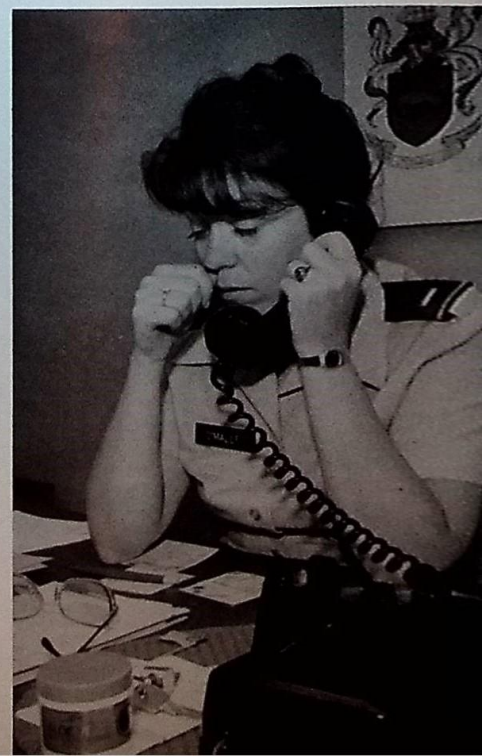

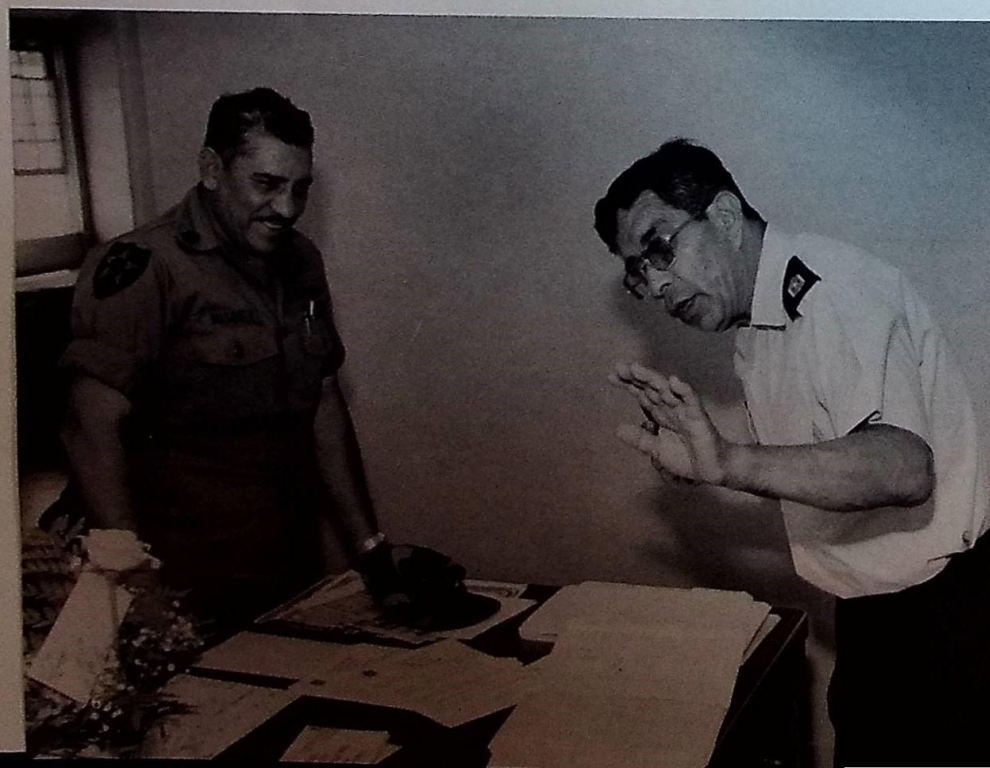

PAO Yearbook Staff

Special Project NCO's discuss the next special activity.

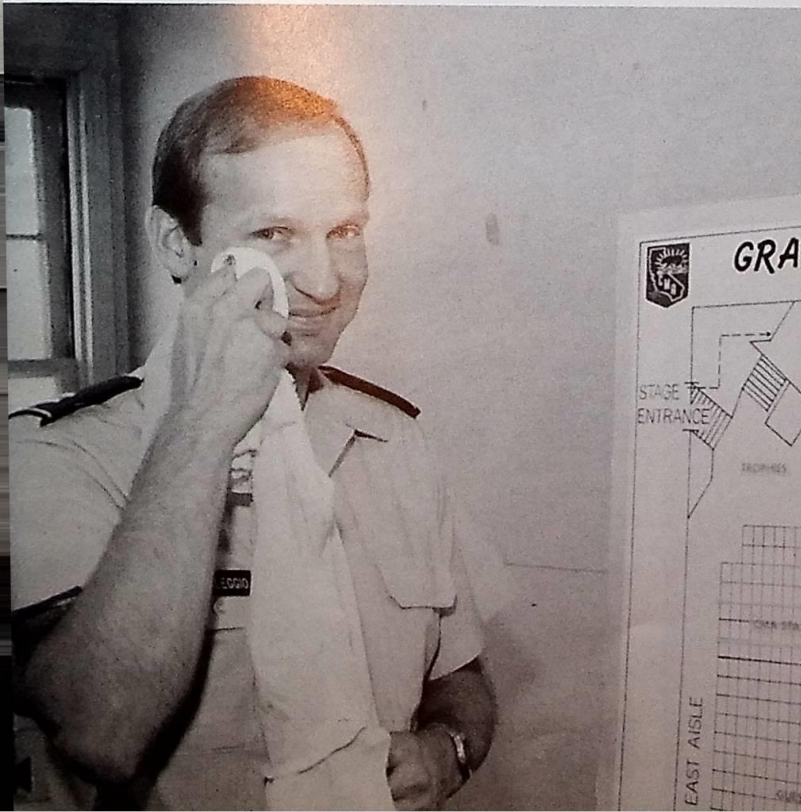

2Lt Rosemary O'Malley, Asst. Special Projects Officer.

Special Projects Section.

I always cry at graduations.

An obscene phone call? For me? Collect?

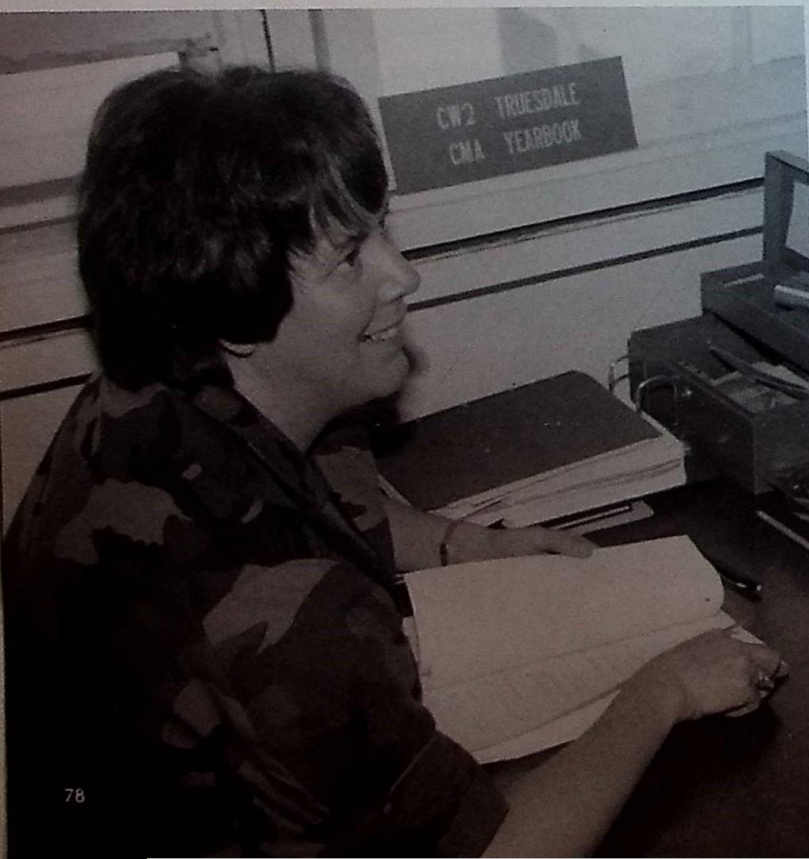

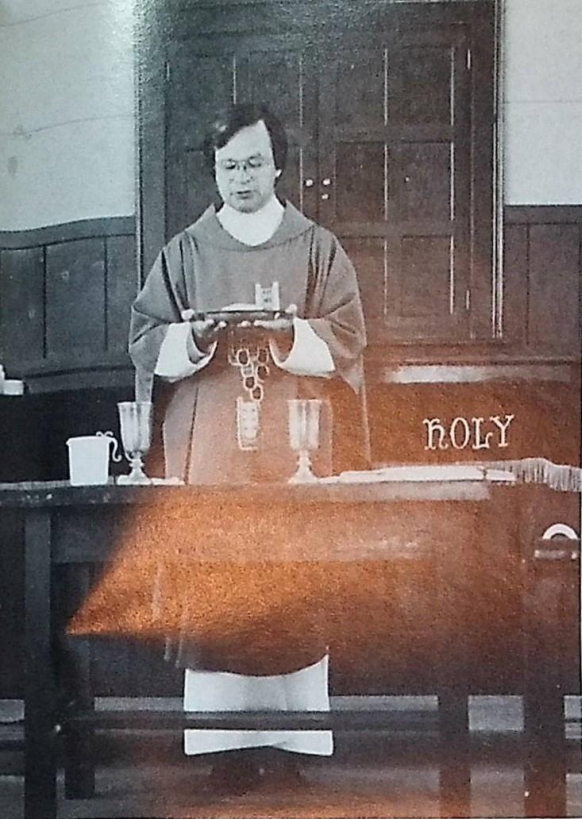

CMA Inprocessing Section

"Anyone want to buy a yearbook?"

The Cadets take time for communion.

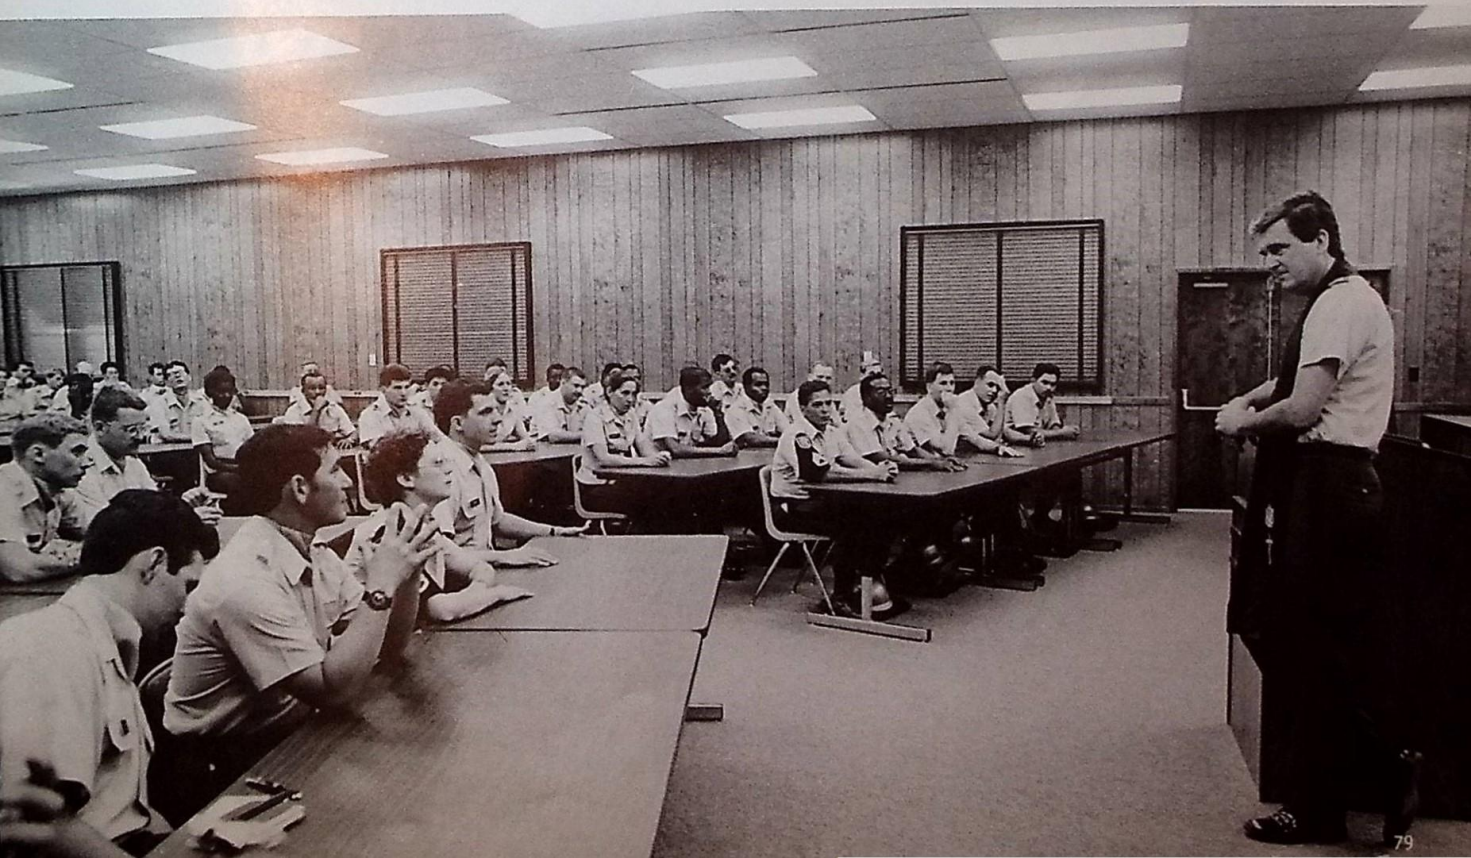

The Catholic Chaplain holds services.

Protestant Chaplain LTC George B. Vogel III has an attentive congregation.

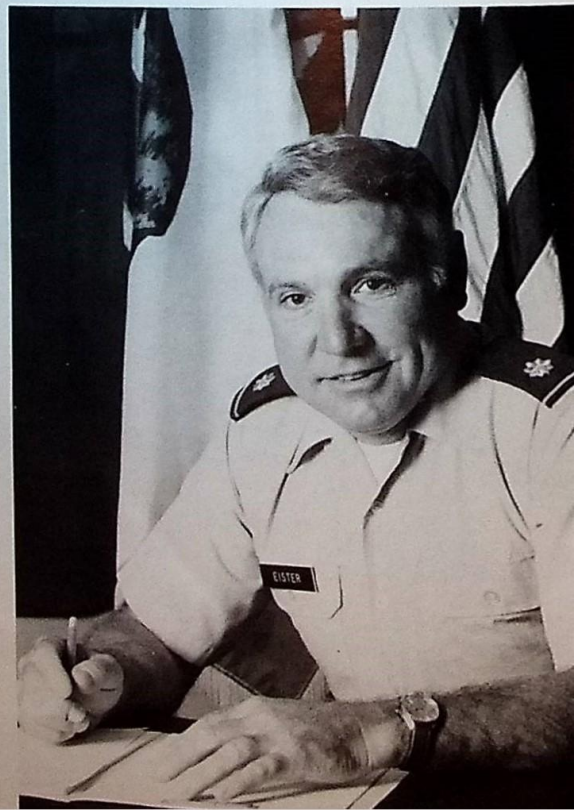

The CMA Evaluation Section.

“Now let me tell you how well you’ve done”.

Maj. Allen T. Eister, Chief Evaluation Section.

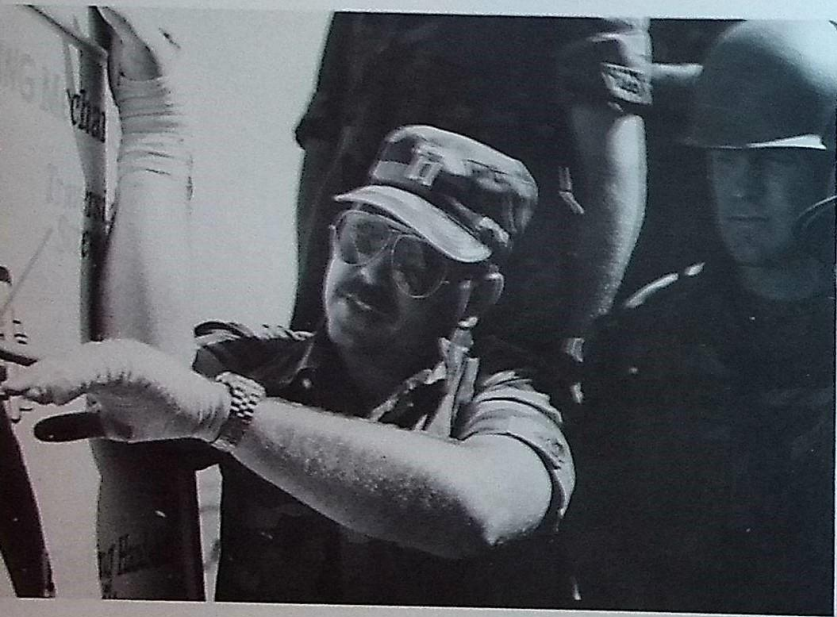

CMA Senior Instructional Committee

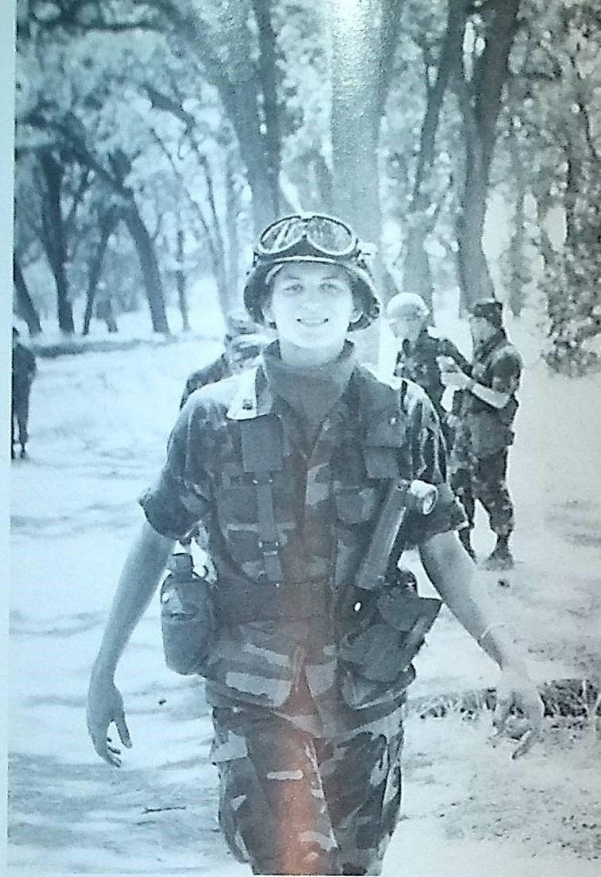

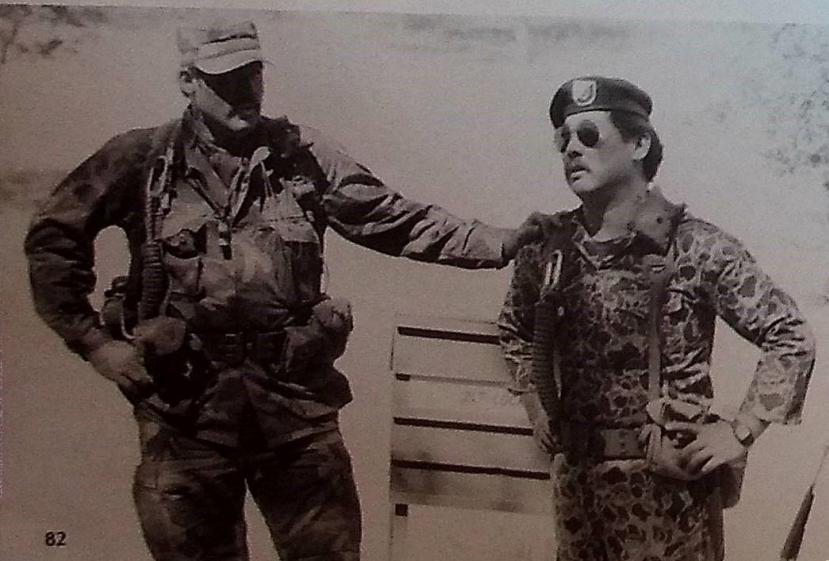

Listen, when I asked you (to dinner man?)

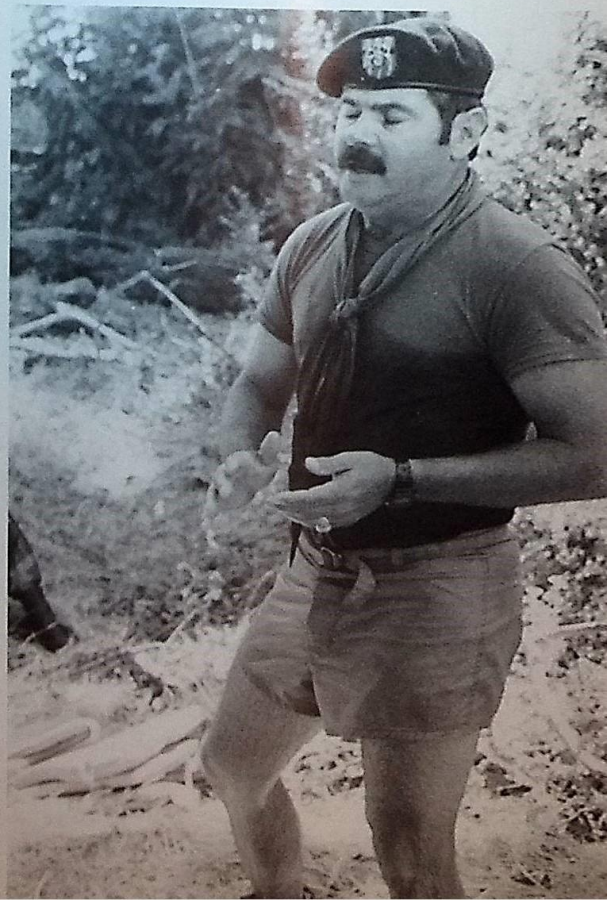

So here gentlemen is the handwriting on the wall.

Cadets let me introduce to you

I hope they remembered to pack the sandwiches

So there I was up to my elbows in alligators.

CMA Junior Instructional Committee

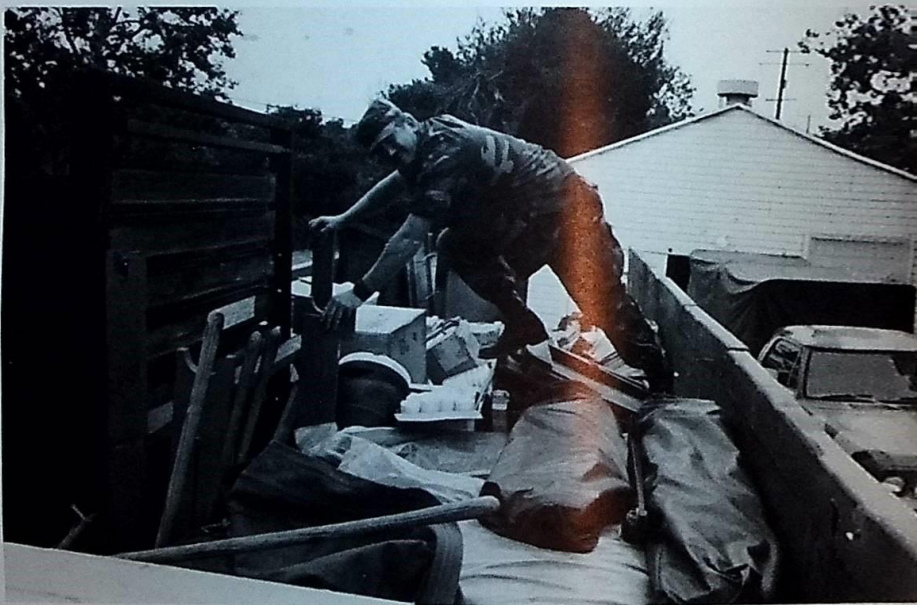

LTC Bolton smiles over 4 "Superior" evaluations yesterday!

Maintain a low profile if you can!

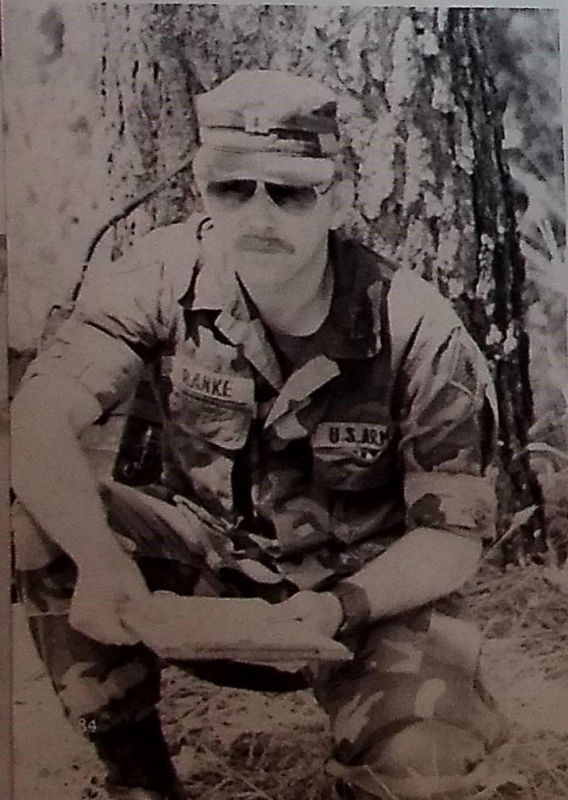

MSG Ortega lends an experienced hand.

If I can only make room for the volleyball net.

Yes, we do sort of call the shots around here.

JUNIOR COMMITTEE

"Naw, you guys won't really put my picture in the yearbook."

Everything about this place is just a little larger than life.

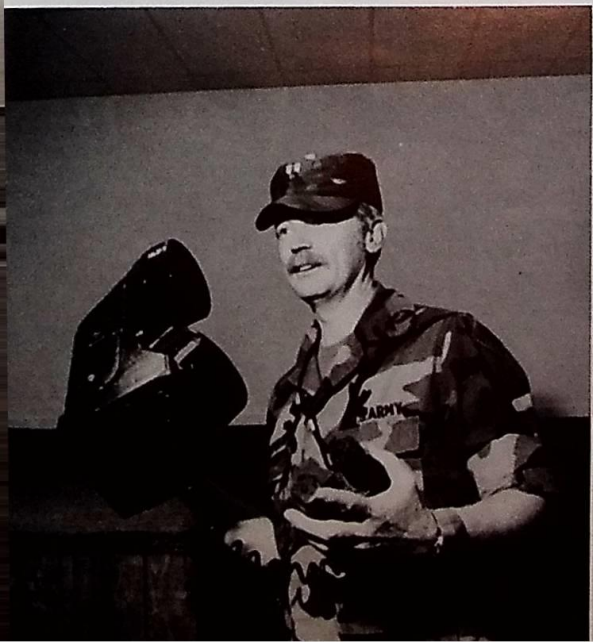

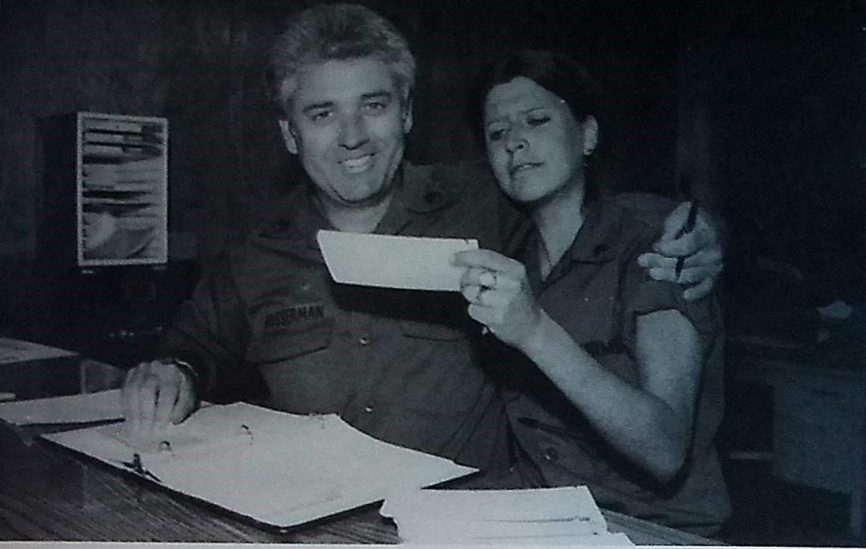

You put this in your left ear and

'You bet dear' It's a very large office, and with a view.

No, I won't make it tonight!

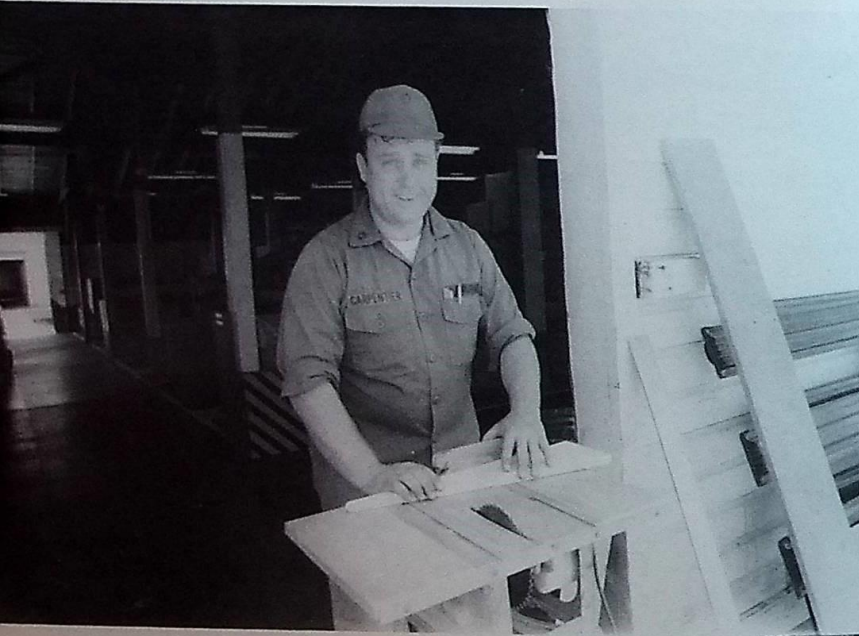

This card states we have none of those things left.

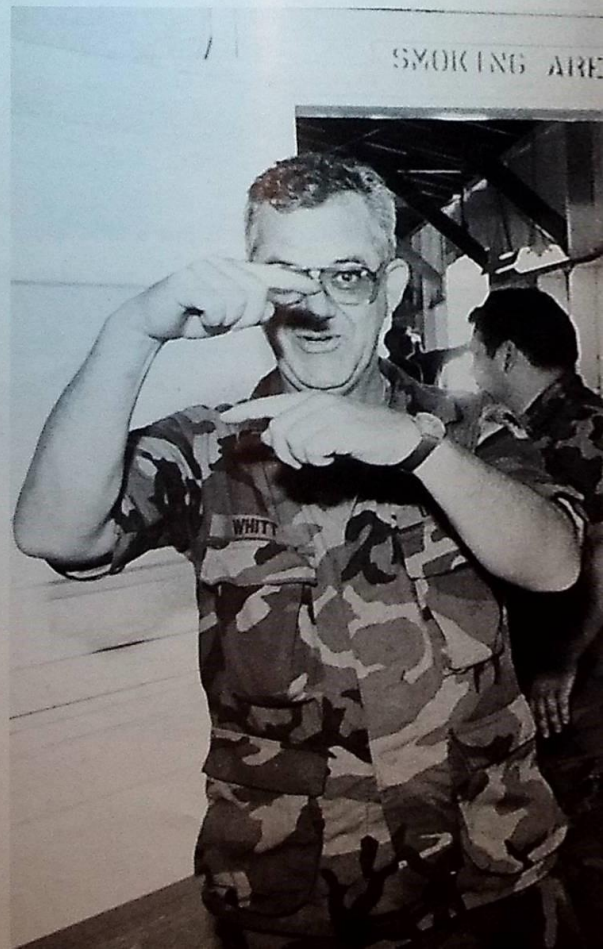

I do this all year at CSLO — It even balances out!!

Maybe if I find the time I can redwood deck my hut.

Let me say it this way Sarge —

CMA Logistics Section. Major Gary G. Fowler, CMA Logistics Officer

Transportation Section

Motor pool Section

What this vehicle needs is a large charge in the right place.

The service here is the best and done with a smile.

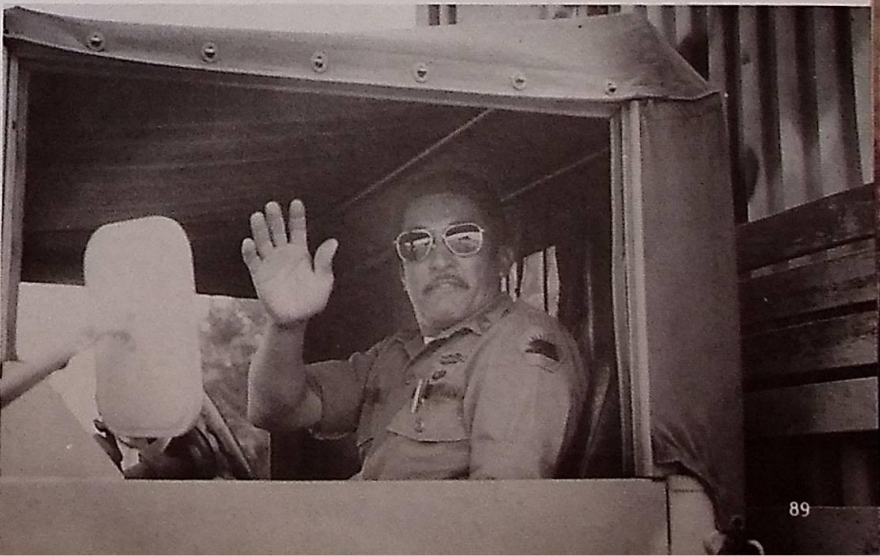

Once I thought modeling would be my niche.

C'mon this is not the 'XKE' I requested.

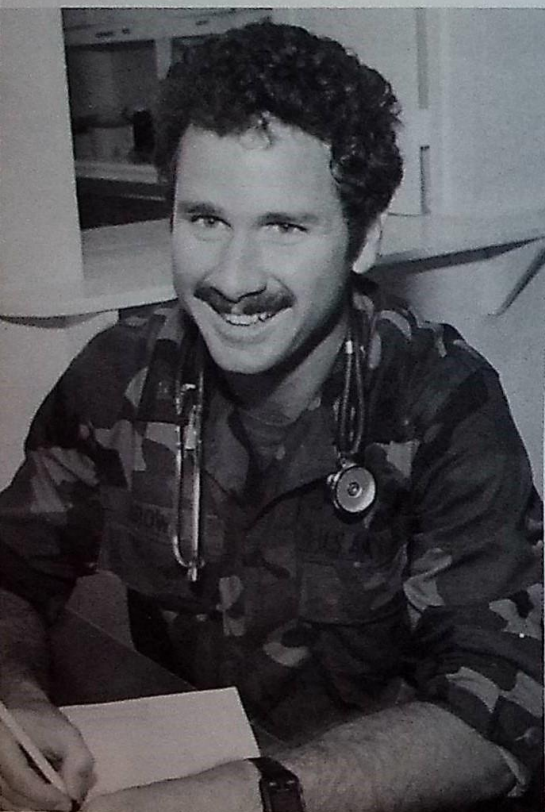

So long, I'm off to Camp Roberts.

MEDICAL CARE CMA 1982

No, really, the doctor is on the 11th fairway even now as we speak.

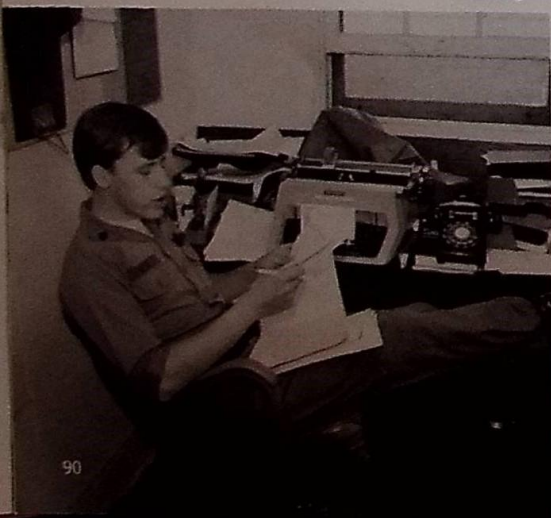

Take two of these each hour and call me in the morning.

The paper work here is never ending.

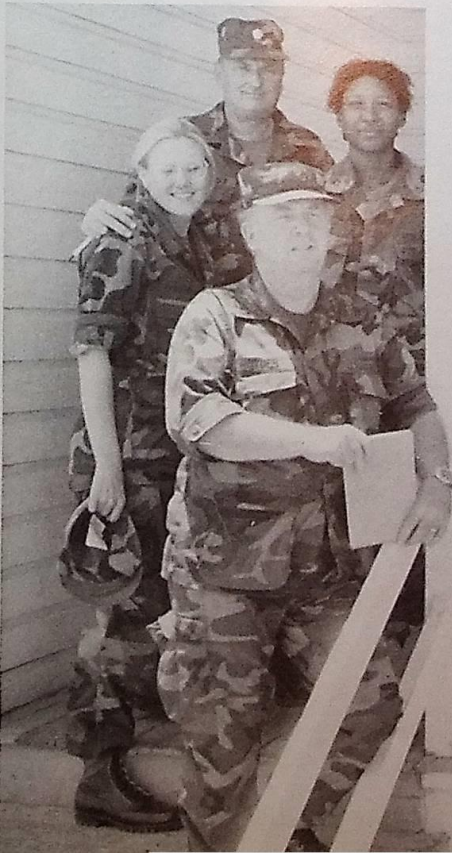

Okay so I just show this to the CO and he assigns us a driver, right?

This sure beats walking.

175th Medical Brigade They kept us repaired and in good health.

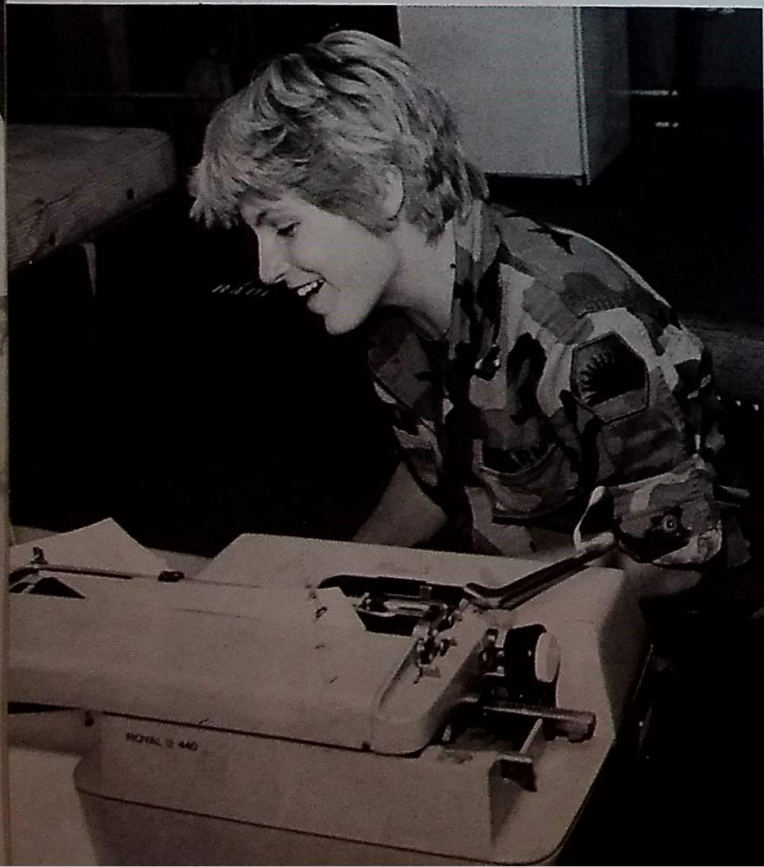

HQ(-) STARC Volleyball results-LMA staff 3 HQ(-) STARC O See you next year!!

These AR's are packed full of information, but nothing on volleyball.

I couldn't find the hair clippers.

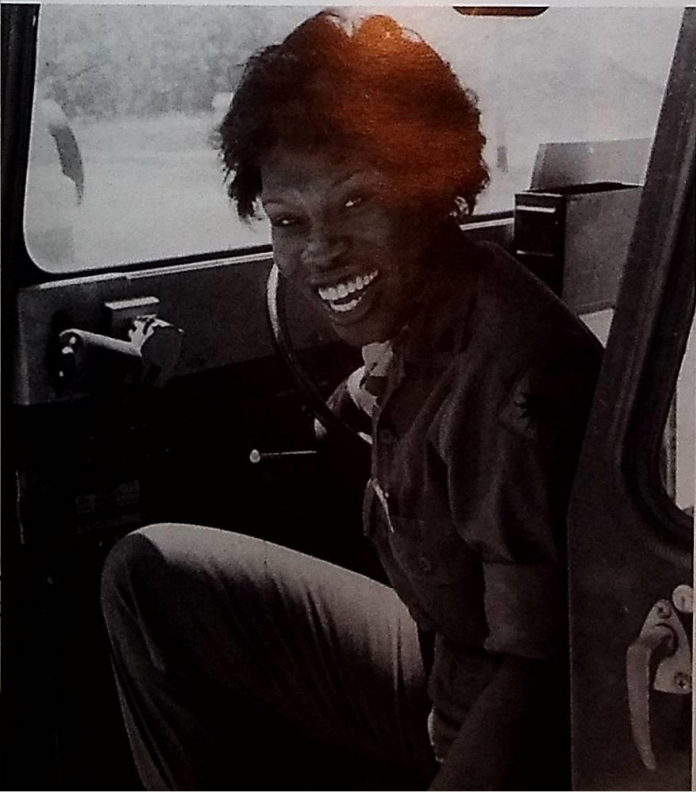

Where did everybody go?

Somebody call for a cab?

This machine better not bit me again!

Here comes the Band!

Now that's good music!

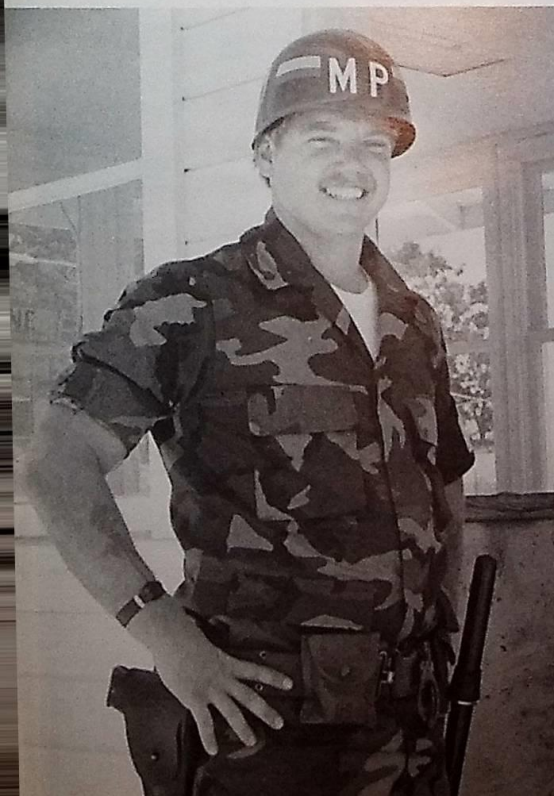

Not only does he carry it, he plays it too.

MP SUPPORT

You know, I never thought Camp could be this much fun.
A good, hones, no name MP on duty at the front gate.

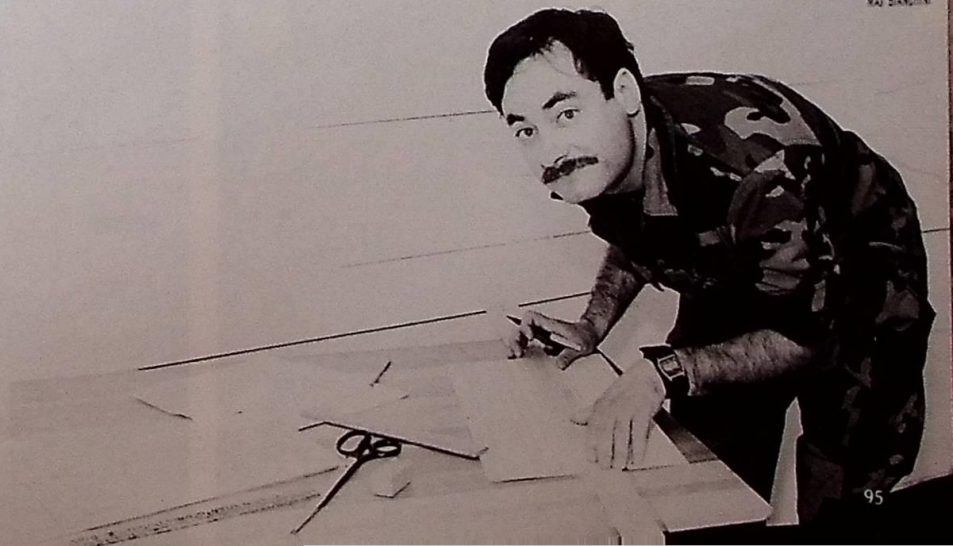

The others? probably all at the beach.

Lets see, I'd better take a few notes here.

The organization begins its phase.

MAJ BIANCHI

and will the real John Doe please stand up.

Field support

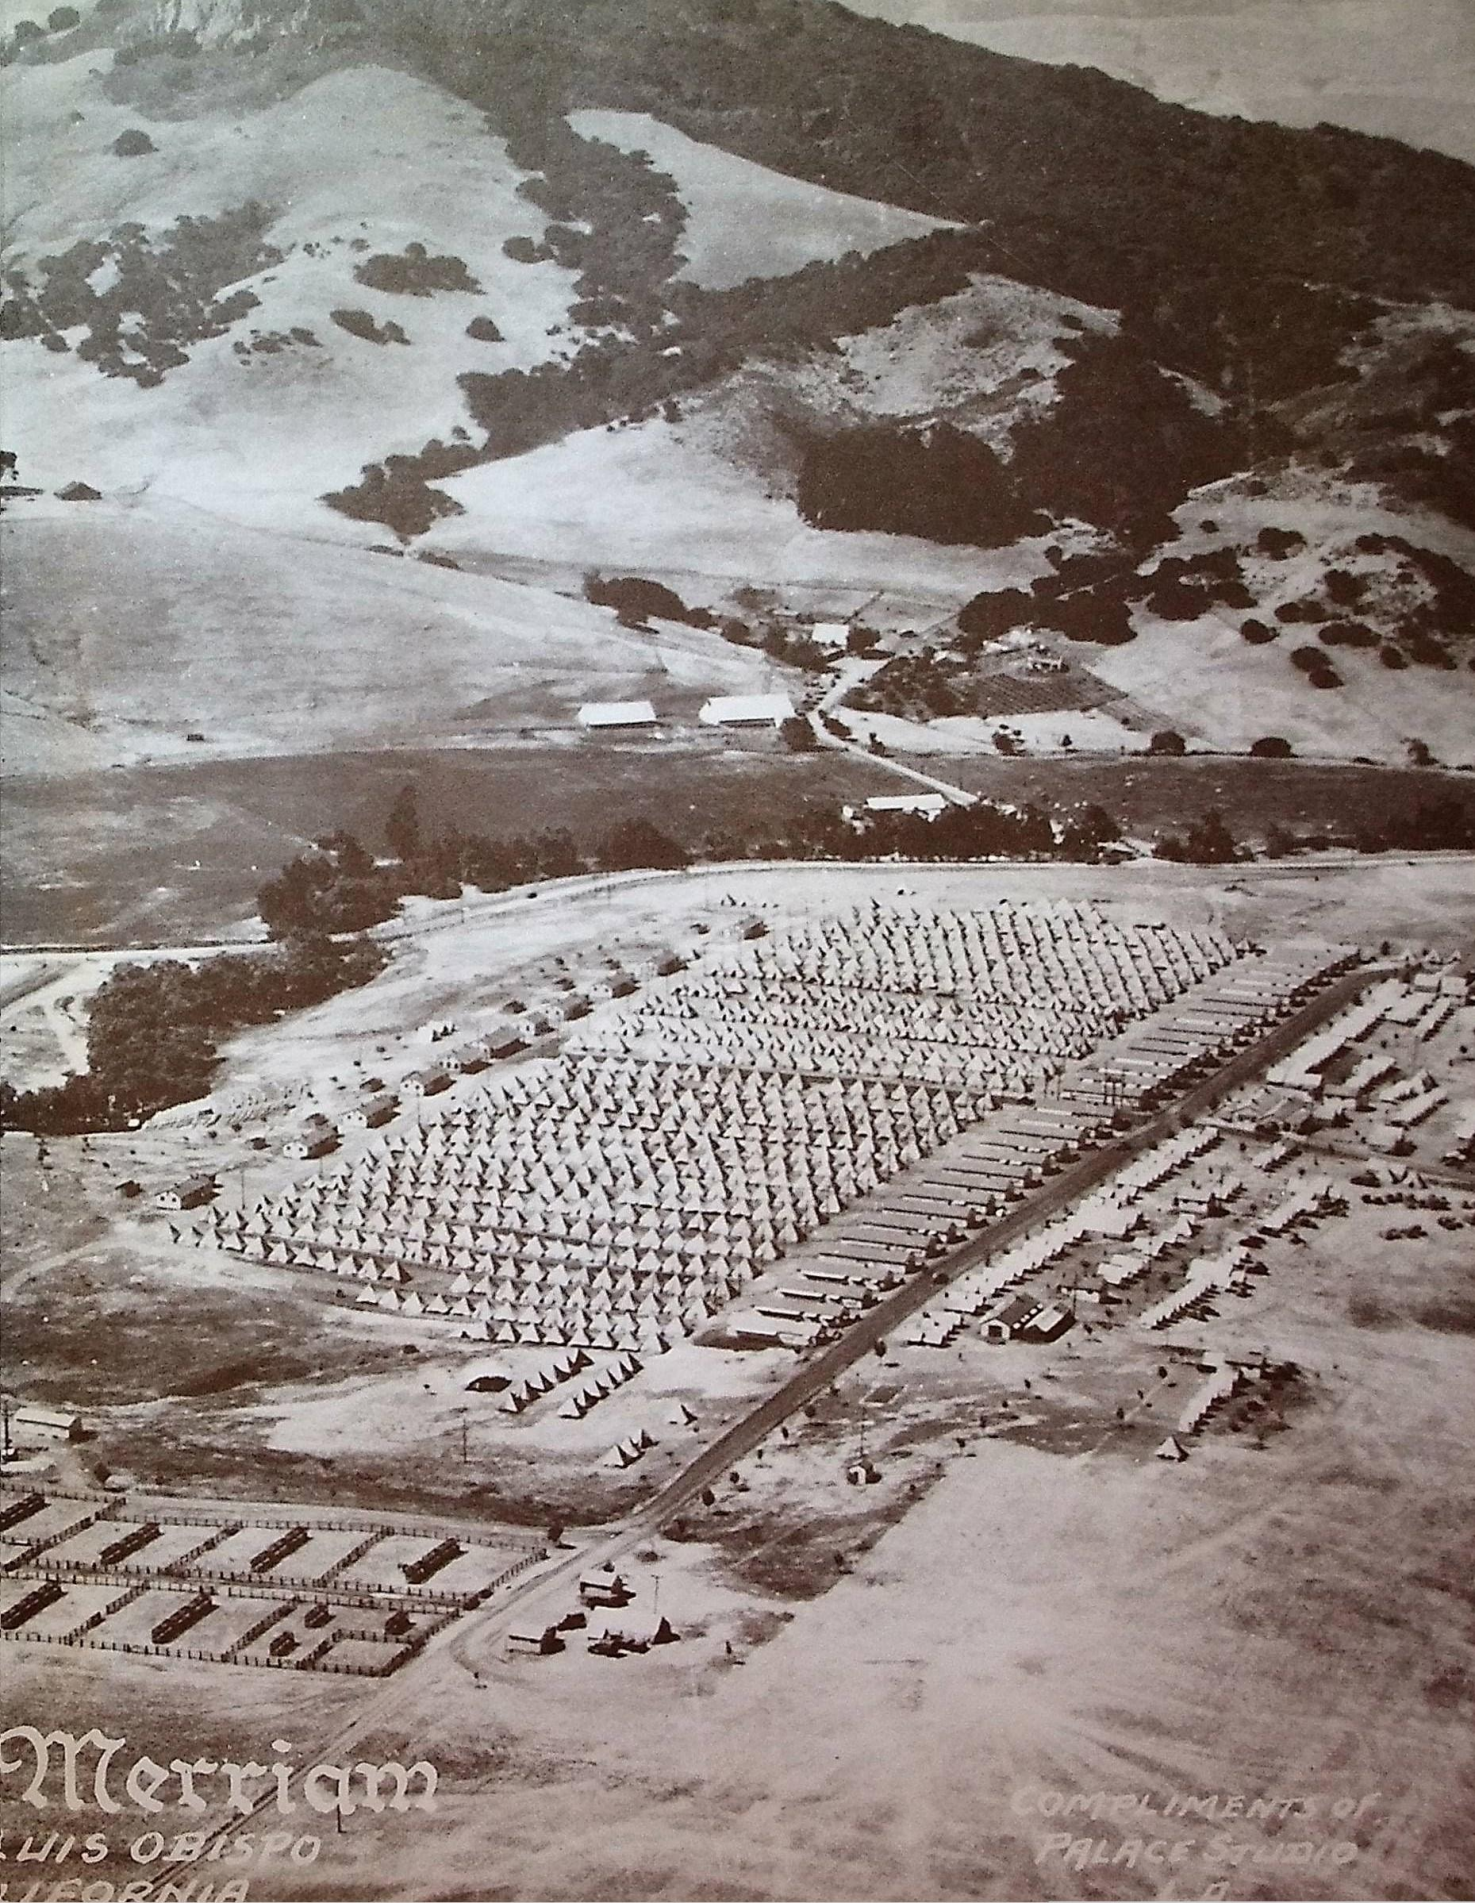

Nice being aboard Colonel but I think I'd rather be in Hawaii.
